the true story of the police investigation into the honour killing of banaz mahmod when rahmat sulemani reported his girlfriend banaz missing it quickly became clear to dci caroline goode that something was very wrong in fact banaz had contacted her local police station multiple times before even listing the names of the men she expected to murder her in a so called honour killing her parents didn't seem worried but Banaz had already accused them of being part of the plot. DCI Goode's team took on the investigation before they even had proof that a murder had taken place. What emerged was a shocking story of betrayal and a community wide web of lies which would take the team from suburban South London to the mountain ranges of Kurdistan making covert recordings and piecing together cell phone data to finally bring the killers to justice.

discusses the history of man's knowledge of the heart, early heart surgery and the results, possible complications, costs and future of heart transplants.

Interdisciplinary education in the age of assessment addresses a prevalent need in educational scholarship. Today many current standards driven curricula follow strict subject specific guidelines leaving educators little room for interdisciplinary innovation. This book gears itself toward developing assessment models specific to interdisciplinary education, positioning itself as a seminal volume in the field and a valuable resource to educators across the disciplines. Each chapter covers a major subject area: literacy, science, math, social studies, bilingual education, foreign language, educational policy, and discusses methods of assessing integrated interdisciplinary curriculum and instruction.
