unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future

if you're a parent who has decided to educate your children yourself this book is the first you should buy. Washington Times The Well Trained Mind will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous comprehensive education from preschool through high school. One that will train him or her to read to think to understand to be well rounded and curious about learning. Veteran home educators Jessie Wise and Susan Wise Bauer outline the classical pattern of education called the trivium which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child's mind and comprises three stages: the elementary school grammar stage, the middle school logic stage, and the high school rhetoric stage. Using this theory as your model, you'll be able to instruct your child in all levels of reading, writing, history, geography, mathematics, science, foreign languages, rhetoric, logic, art, and music regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects. This newly revised edition contains completely updated ordering information for all curricula and books, new and expanded curricula recommendations, new material on using computers and distance learning resources, answers to common questions about home education, information about educational support groups, and advice on practical matters such as working with your local school board, preparing a high school transcript, and applying to colleges.
