since being written the end time prophecies of the bible have been shrouded in mystery our world is now inundated with book after book on the subject of end time interpretation often the most important aspects of the bible s prophecies are twisted or changed to fit the needs of a hollywood movie expertly sifting through the modern fog covering these important prophecies david hamblin takes an exhaustive yet thoroughly readable approach to the study of the end times using the proven techniques of the scientific method david put together a system of prophecy analysis that would allow for extremely complex theories to be tested against the many and varying passages of end times prophecy beginning with a solid faith in the bible as the infallible word of god he now presents his findings in god s prophetic timeline never before has there been such a clear and concise presentation of god s timeline for the future along with many passages that david admits we cannot yet understand written for the minister and layperson alike it begins by explaining the church age and progresses through each of revelation s seven phases ending with new heaven and new earth his approach details even subtle prophetic material including israel s future wealth the world war it triggers and jesus coronation don t be puzzled any longer by confusion on the subject of prophecy leave behind the many contradictory theories propagated by the misinformed follow along as god s prophetic timeline shows you in detail the tested validated and unified understanding of the bible s prophecies

this book presents a heuristic and critical study of comparative theology in engagement with phenomenological methodology and sociological inquiry it elucidates a postcolonial study of religion in the context of multiple modernities draws on theology and queer theory to argue for the power of humiliating pleasures in a culture oriented very strongly to denying any enjoyment that is not about success luckily for human diversity we are perfectly capable of desiring impossible things failing desire explores a particular set of these impossibilities those connected to humiliation these include the failure of autonomy in submission of inward privacy in confession of visual modesty in exhibition and of dignity in playing various roles historically those who find pleasure in these failures range from ancient cynics through early christian monks to those now drawn by queer or perverse eroticism as judith halberstam pointed out in the queer art of failure failure can actually be a mode of resistance to demands for what a culture defines as success karmen mackendrick draws on this interest in queer refusals to value desire or seek humiliation undercuts any striving for success but it draws our attention particularly to the failures of knowledge as a form of power whether that knowledge is of one body or of a population how can we understand will that seeks not to govern itself psychology that constructs inwardness by telling all blushing shame that delights in exposure or dignity that refuses its lofty position failing desire suggests that the power of these desires and pleasures comes out of the very realization that this question can never quite be answered in failing desire karmen mackendrick offers her readers something akin to a sequel to counterpleasures pursuing the negative affects of failure humiliation and shame across authors that inform much of her work bataille blanchot augustine foucault kristeva and laure mackendrick effortlessly and breathlessly provides us with provocative new insights about the limitations of language the pleasures of submission and obedience and the wily unruliness of the flesh for her devotees the evocative prose and suggestive analysis will seem familiar without being stale or repetitious for novices her style and acumen will seem assured and electrifying mackendrick breathes new life into authors texts and topics that have been at the forefront of critical engagements with embodiment desire and affect for the past several decades kent I brintnall author of ecce homo the male body in pain as redemptive figure
