i ve been a practicing psychologist in an outpatient setting for over thirty two years i run into the same issues and problems almost every day addictions anxiety adhd learning disabilities assertiveness children s behaviors mood disorders relationships and self esteem self esteem is one of the most important of these in its own right but in every one of the other areas self esteem plays a huge role usually when people have a good self image the problems in each of these other areas diminish good self esteem is a trait that everyone needs in every situation here s some particulars new concept in my way of thinking there are four foundation concepts of self esteem that is there are four aspects or qualities that contribute to its formation i call them powers in this case each one adds to your total personal power new concept i devised a test to measure your strengths and weaknesses in each of the four powers you score yourself and use the scores to understand where you shine and where you don t self esteem is an epiphenomenon what it evolves from zillions of little experiences that make it up i describe the process and how our self images emerge self esteem emerges in different ways at different times in our lives and it manifests differently in different areas you have to understand the process before the concept makes sense you can t change self esteem if you don t understand this new concept the next section deals with the one concept and technique that makes the biggest and fastest changes to self esteem i call it the anchor concept there are lots of techniques in the literature but this one idea stands out and isn t presented elsewhere i developed it over twenty years then i write about resistance there s always a bunch of excuses for not doing the work and i name them there s a reason they are there and until you understand how and why they got there self image won t change i write about what therapy is vs what ebooks can do my goal is to provide as much information as possible to fix a crummy self image without going to a therapist you ll be surprised how much you can do if you think nothing will work think again next comes a discussion about some preventative strategies and the one technique that best immunizes against future dings to self image problems this ebook is 37 pages and is one of the best one i ve written to date clients are very enthusiastic about this ebook probably because everyone can use some work on self esteem again this ebook has no fat think of it as a cliffs notes publication it s sort of a quick read about two hours for the first reading because i have to explain stuff using terms you probably haven t heard before but its all laid out in everyday language just like what you re reading now nobody has published what i present as the glue that makes these concepts work i think this is why my ebook does a better job it s process not content driven the theory i espouse is different from standard behavior change books it works better i know because i ve been using it with clients for years now you can do this yourself i ve put together a hard hitting direct how to manual my research has not turned up another ebook that does what mine does
