sentences speak his mother dreaded the prospect this elephant will kill you also don't go to death she pleaded with unni but unni was resigned to his fate and sure that death comes but once he felt he had no option but to take up the work devotees were waiting for prasadam seeing the plate empty they went to the temple priest and complained kannan's explanations could convince none finally when the priest started beating up kannan lord krishna appeared before him gajarajan the elephant was renowned not just for his majestic appearance but also his intelligence and human response he labeled me as a fool who left everything to god he frequently admonished me that destiny was shaped by events and i lacked the will to overcome mishaps one thing done at a particular point in time may not hold good at some other time doing the right things at the right time is a prerequisite to everything it is determination and self grit that gets one through tolerance towards fellowmen is the greatness of human beings nature teaches us that nothing is permanent on this earth apart from change itself whatever good or bad happens to us is because god wills it to happen the novelist ivan turgenev 1818 1883 is known primarily as a chronicler of his age and crafter of elegant prose like the simplest painting of daily artifacts his works have pleased partly because they shape a recognizable world and partly because their form gives to the content its resonant signifying power here jane costlow accounts for both the historicity and aesthetic elegance of turgenev s realist novels in close readings of rudin a nest of gentry on the eve and fathers and children all written between 1855 and 1861 each essay focuses on a particular aspect of turgenev s art as it relates to his human and aesthetic concerns this study challenges traditional views of turgenev as an objective recorder of his times suggesting that the engaging qualities of his novels lie less in their historicity than in the lyricism and aesthetic consciousness with which he shaped his narratives costlow explores the lyric meditation pastoral longing and unspoken emotion that are the hallmarks of turgenev s prose and that make up his worlds within worlds the realms of his novels that elude the historical throughout she demonstrates how the aesthetics of constraint and understatement mask the author s awareness of limitation and complexity in human experience by stressing the enigmatic and challenging qualities of his works costlow exposes turgenev to revealing new readings originally published in 1990 the princeton legacy library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of princeton university press these editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions the goal of the princeton legacy library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by princeton university press since its founding in 1905 anthropologist michael jackson predicates his intellectual autobiography worlds within and worlds without on the view that works and lives are intimately entangled through a skillful interweaving of personal and ethnographic descriptions he focuses on the imaginative and practical ways human beings negotiate the space between worlds they call their own and worlds they regard as lying beyond their immediate purview whether the worlds that elude our empirical grasp are identified with divinities or the dead ether or earth history or myth the internet or the nation state we experience them ambivalently as potential sources of wellbeing and as possible threats to our very existence closing ourselves off from the world is not an option for our humanity depends on the ties that bind us to significant others and others to us as jackson shows the relationship between the familiar and the foreign is not only an existential issue that all human beings address in one way or another it is a methodological issue for anthropologists concerned with the complementarity of individual and collective perspectivesethnos and anthropos the intrapsychic and the intersubjective
