vauban was the foremost military engineer of france not only during his lifetime but also throughout the 18th century when his legacy and methods remained in place almost unchanged indeed his expertise and experience in the construction defence and attack of fortresses is unrivalled by any of his contemporaries of any nationality in all three of those fields he was a significant innovator and prolific exponent having planned approximately 160 major defensive projects and directed over 50 sieges this book provides not only a modern listing of his varied interventions and their fates but also a wide ranging discussion of just how and why they pushed forward the international boundaries of the arts of fortification b the journey which this little book is to describe was very agreeable and fortunate for me after an uncouth beginning i had the best of luck to the end but we are all travellers in what john bunyan calls the wilderness of this world all too travellers with a donkey and the best that we find in our travels is an honest friend he is a fortunate voyager who finds many we travel indeed to find them they are the end and the reward of life they keep us worthy of ourselves and when we are alone we are only nearer to the absent every book is in an intimate sense a circular letter to the friends of him who writes it they alone take his meaning they find private messages assurances of love and expressions of gratitude dropped for them in every corner the public is but a generous patron who defrays the postage yet though the letter is directed to all we have an old and kindly custom of addressing it on the outside to one of what shall a man be proud if he is not proud of his friends and so my dear sidney colvin it is with pride that i sign myself affectionately yours r l s i have a goad the auberge of bouchet st nicolas was among the least pretentious i have ever visited but i saw many more of the like upon my journey indeed it was typical of these french highlands imagine a cottage of two stories with a bench before the door the stable and kitchen in a suite so that modestine and i could hear each other dining furniture of the plainest earthen floors a single bedchamber for travellers and that without any convenience but beds i have a goad the monks father michael a pleasant fresh faced smiling man perhaps of thirty five took me to the pantry and gave me a glass of liqueur to stay me until dinner we had some talk or rather i should say he listened to my prattle indulgently enough but with an abstracted air like a spirit with a thing of clay and truly when i remember that i descanted principally on my appetite and that it must have been by that time more than eighteen hours since father michael had so much as broken bread i can well understand that he would find an earthly savour in my conversation but his manner though superior was exquisitely gracious and i find i have a
