on december 15 2001 canadian prime minister jean chretien presented to the united states ambassador a special presentation copy of a sumptuous book commemorating the outpouring of sympathy support and assistance offered by canadians to their american friends in the immediate aftermath of the terrible events of september 11 on february 2 2002 mcclelland stewart ltd together with the government of canada and exclusive sponsor alliance atlantis offers this book to people on both sides of the border this is a superbly designed full colour coffee table book containing brilliant photographs of the events immediately following the appalling terrorist strikes and a selection of emotion laden letters articles and messages reflecting the heartfelt responses of canadians from vancouver to st john s the book is organized as a day by day chronicle it shows in words and pictures what happened when hundreds of commercial airliners were unexpectedly grounded stranding tens of thousands of people far from their homes it shows the memorial services that were held everywhere particularly on parliament hill in ottawa where 100 000 people gathered it shows the steps that canadians took both as individuals for example by assisting in the work at ground zero and as a nation by mobilizing our armed forces it has been remarked that the events of september 11 have had a positive effect by bringing out the best in people nowhere is this more evident than in the manifest demonstrations of friendship between canadians and americans since that consequential day this superb volume is both a memorial to those lost and a celebration of the spirit shared by the survivors on both sides of the border while clear and consistent regional differences in the volunteering and charitable giving of canadians have been documented for years no explanations have been advanced to account for them in this analysis we show that analysis of variations across canada in the patterns of contributory behaviour is incomplete if it focuses solely on the formal modes of contributing the span of regional differences narrows significantly when both formal and informal modes are considered together
