government is analysed as the product of exchange among individuals who differ in their bargaining power this approach shows why individuals agree to political institutions that give their governments extensive power and why even the most powerful government benefits from constitutional rules constraining the government's power this foundation is used to examine a wide range of government activities including its protection of rights its military activities and democratic political institutions collaboration undoubtedly is the key to unlocking sustainable impact in the developing world today we have more and more non profits government agencies philanthropic institutions and businesses addressing a range of critical social problems across the globe however collaborations between these stakeholders remain uncommon in india the sheer scale and complexity of the country's development challenges make collaboration both useful and timely a collaborative approach is urgently needed to complement the strengths of a number of important players in the development space including two of the largest and most influential ones governments and foundations in a readable coherent and succinct account kiger surveys the changes that have taken place in u s foundations in the 20th century and describes our foundations as they exist today opening with historical information on the emergence of large foundations at the beginning of the century the book discusses the major characteristics of foundations emphasizing that they are organized to give away rather than make money and identifies and discusses the major changes since 1950 in considering those changes the book considers such topics as growth and expansion diversification in the makeup of trustees and staff and governmental oversight and supervision in the increasing movement of foundations into the international sphere the book covers their international activities and the formation and operation of international centers and groups associated with them phlanthropic foundations in the twentieth century provides a useful overview of the growth development and operation of foundations the modern american foundation as an instrumentality for charitable and philanthropic giving is in many ways a unique and complex social economic political institution this is particularly the case for foundations with large assets as a social phenomenon the foundation has deep roots in the past at the beginnings of any degree of civilization charitable giving and rudimentary forms of foundations emerge this is the case in many regions of the world the pattern is consistent once enough property or wealth beyond primitive human needs is accumulated some of it begins to be set aside for what the donors of such wealth consider worthwhile purposes the serious literature contributing greatly to public perception of philanthropy and foundations has been relatively sparse much of what is available is quantitative and statistical in nature there has been limited objective attention to the motives or reasons spurring individual philanthropists to engage or not to engage in creating foundations such motivation needs historical and comparative analysis major investigations and studies of foundations together with ancillary national regional and international organizations to facilitate such study have received spotty consideration philanthropists and foundation globalization addresses three interrelated aspects of foundation history first it reviews biographical historical profiles of the founding philanthropists and their heirs engaged in international giving second it discusses major governmental and non governmental investigations and studies of foundations including domestic ones and also foreign ones in which u s participants have played a prominent role spanning the period 1912 to the present third it chronicles foundation developments and activities in europe at the close of the twentieth century the volume provides a historical account of some u s foundations international activity in a particular region in a specific time period and their accomplishments in addition to its other accomplishments this volume is the first effort to place the soros macarthur templeton and kerkorian foundations in a global context this is a major contribution to an important new area of public and academic interest
