in 1941 the european war became a world war this book tackles that process in its economic political and ideological dimensions margaret lamb and nicholas tarling explore the significance of the asian factor and the importance of east asia in the making of the war in europe and the transformation of the european war of 1939 into the world war of 1941 this asian factor has often been neglected but the policies of all the major powers were affected by their world wide interests france had its possessions in north africa and asia nazi germany chose to become involved in china and to make an agreement with japan britain s action in europe and the mediterranean were conditioned by its commitments elsewhere in the world and the united states and the soviet union were both involved in europe and asia in particular the threat that japan presented to the status quo in east asia made it difficult for the war in europe in turn affected the position in east asia the us built a two ocean navy and encouraged the british to continue their struggle by keeping the resources of south east asia available and these steps led to a clash with the japanese lamb and tarling s global approach throws valuable new light on the origins of the second world war excerpt from the war in europe and its lessons for us an address while i have found receptive audiences all over the country there is no community in which i would expect a more sympathetic hearing than in this because the distinguished gentle man who represents you in congress views the subject from the same standpoint that i do whenever a new question arises upon which the people have not expressed themselves it is important that each individual should make known his views in order that public opinion may represent the voters generally and not a portion of the people only the country would be fortunate if all of our public men were as candid and as courageous in taking a position as congressman bailey who honors you as he is honored by you in order that you may follow me the more easily i shall outline in advance the address which i am to deliver to you it naturally divides itself into three parts first the war as it is and its injury to neutrals second the false philosophy out of which the war has grown and the natural results of that false philosophy and third the way out or the road to permanent peace the subject is presented with a view to emphasizing the lessons
