this is the eleventh inquiry by the committee on standards in public life with this particular report reviewing the work of the electoral commission the commission itself was established as an independent statutory body on 30 november 2000 with a mandate to review or examine such matters as electoral administration and the conduct of elections and standards of propriety in financing political parties all these issues have been of recent public concern and the committee believes it is important to ask whether the commission's current mandate governance arrangements and accountability framework are appropriate for the purpose required of the commission the committee has set out 41 recommendations including that the mandate of the commission should be amended and refocused so that it has two principal statutory duties i as regulator of political party funding and campaign expenditure in the uk ii and as a regulator of electoral administration in great britain further that it should decentralize responsibility for monitoring and regulating campaign and constituency expenditure in scotland wales and northern ireland to regional offices it should report to parliament annually on standards of electoral administration it should have no involvement in electoral boundary matters or have a role in undertaking policy development in relation to electoral legislation that the commission should undertake detailed research into the scale of electoral fraud in the uk the publication is divided into 5 chapters with appendices chapter 1 introduction and context chapter 2 mandate of the electoral commission chapter 3 governance of the electoral commission chapter 4 accountability of the electoral commission chapter 5 integrity of the electoral process this book explores the reasons for the uneven development of democratic elections in the member states of the african union it notes the slow pace of some member states of the union to get on top of delivering credible elections and analyze the attempts which are being made in the 21st century to remedy the situation governments need rules institutions and processes to translate the will of the people into functioning democracies election laws are the rules that make that happen yet across the world various countries have crafted different rules regarding how elections are conducted who gets to vote who is allowed to run for office what role political parties have and what place money has in the financing of campaigns and candidates the routledge handbook of election law is the first major cross national comparative reference book surveying the electoral practices and law of the major and emerging democracies across the world it brings together the leading international scholars on election law and democracy examining specific issues topics or the regions of the world when it comes to rules institutions and processes regarding how they run their elections the result is a rich volume of research furthering the legal and political science knowledge about democracies and the challenges they face scholars interested in election law and democracy as well as election officials will find the routledge handbook of election law an essential reference book
