Step 3 EvidenceBased Analysis This is where the analytical muscle comes in. Don't just guess; support your analysis with specific evidence from the text. For each motive you identify, cite specific lines, actions, or descriptions that justify your interpretation.

Weak Analysis The character is selfish. This is a general statement lacking evidence.

Strong Analysis The character's act of secretly taking money from the shared fund suggests a motive driven by financial desperation. The line "I couldn't bear the thought of my children going hungry" coupled with the character's threadbare clothing supports the theory that their actions are motivated by a need to provide for their family rather than pure selfishness. This analysis provides concrete evidence.

Visual A table comparing weak and strong analysis examples with direct text evidence highlighted.

Step 4 Considering Multiple Motives Characters are rarely driven by a single motive. It's often more nuanced than that. Consider the interplay of different internal and external factors. A character might act out of both fear and ambition, for instance.

Step 5 Conclusion and Interpretation Summarize your findings, providing a well-supported interpretation of the character's primary motives. Discuss the impact of these motives on the character's actions and the overall narrative.

Tips for Success

- Context is Key Consider the historical, social, and cultural context of the story.
- Avoid Oversimplification Resist the urge to reduce complex characters to simplistic labels.
- Multiple Perspectives Consider the motives from different perspectives.

Practice Makes Perfect The more you practice analyzing motives, the better you'll become.

Summary of Key Points

Motive analysis involves identifying and interpreting the reasons behind a character's actions. Close reading and annotation are crucial for understanding the text. Motives can be internal (personal desires and beliefs) or external (environmental factors). Support your analysis with specific evidence from the text. Consider multiple motives and their interplay.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- How do I handle conflicting evidence? Analyze the conflicting evidence carefully. Is one piece of evidence more significant than another? Does the context offer clues to resolve the conflict? Discuss the conflict and your interpretation of its significance.
