haroro j ingram journeys through over a century of history from the islamist modernists of the late 1800s into the 21st century in the first full length examination of the charismatic leadership phenomenon in islamist radicalism and militancy exhaustively researched and founded upon a suite of innovative multidisciplinary paradigms this book features case studies of hassan al banna sayyid qutb abdullah azzam osama bin laden and anwar al awlaki at a micro level ingram argues that charismatic leaders act as vehicles for the evolution of modern islamist radicalism and militancy at a macro level he argues that the transformative charisma phenomenon in islamist radicalism and militancy produces complex chains of charismatic leaders as individual figures rise by leveraging to varying degrees the charismatic capital of preceding charismatic leaders within these case studies ingram offers new approaches to understanding the nuances of these complex phenomena from his ideal types of charismatic leadership in islamist militancy spiritual guides charismatic leaders and neo charismatic leaders to his framing of al qaeda as a charismatic adhocracy the result is an authoritative analysis of a phenomenon largely ignored by scholars of both charismatic leadership and islamism ultimately this ground breaking investigation offers important insights into the complex nuances that drive the rise and evolution of not only islamist militancy but radical and militant groups more broadly though much has been written on the pastoral dimension of pope francis approach there is little or none on the specific impact and call of the synod towards a synodal church communion participation mission is the programme proposed by pope francis for the church these are good and noble concepts but in their implementation human sin is bound to enter while elaborating on the promise of this programme little or nothing has been said of the interaction of implementation and the negativity of sin this new book aims to identify some of the negative elements functioning in the implementation of the programme it introduces a nuancing of christian reflection in the spirit of pope francis especially in seminaries and places for the formation of religious with the conclusion of the catholic synod 2021 2024 there is a need for intellectual moral and religious conversion in order to bring forth the fruits of the synod the book also offers a proposal for the elaboration of doctrine a paradigm for theology in terms of the pope s programme a theology that is a journeying together that is a journeying out of selfishness the book will be of interest to all faculties of catholic theology and wider students and researchers of modern faith and religion the importance of comprehending god s will for one s life is emphasized throughout the book because it is necessary to forge a contented and fruitful connection with god when one is unclear about god s plan in any area of their life uncertainty and uneasiness arise too many christians go about their daily lives never realizing what god s perfect will is for them at that specific time christians are deprived of the chance to experience god s highest intentions by not knowing god s perfect will additionally it keeps people from leading a prosperous fruitful joyful peaceful and spiritually filled life in the present the lack of discernment of god s perfect will for your life will cause you to live far below your rights and privileges in christ however the recognition of god s purpose for your life will provide a greater sense of identity belonging vocation and guidance which links you to a higher purpose the kingdom of god the reality is that this crucial aspect of christianity today receives relatively little attention but it is at the core of effective and genuine christian living without a clear grasp of god s intention for one s life one could feel like or even become a square peg in a round hole especially in identifying the appropriate ministries and where to serve effectively in the body of christ the book is about the importance of knowing god s will for one s life which is paramount in having a harmonious and fulfilling relationship with god when there s uncertainty concerning the will of god in any aspect of one s existence it results to confusion and anxiety too many christians go through life and never realize god s perfect will during their sojourn in time in doing so believers are robbed of the privilege of experiencing god s best for their lives it also deprives them of having an overcoming fruitful spirit filled joyful and peaceful life not discerning god s perfect will for your life will cause you to live far below your rights and privileges in christ the recognition of god s purpose for your life will provide a sense of identity belongingness vocation and guidance which serves to connect you to a higher purpose the kingdom of god the truth is that not much attention is paid to this very critical area of christianity today however it is the very heart of efficient and authentic
