this groundbreaking study explores how the fight between dispensationalists and covenant theologians got started and how a unique dynamic of personalities and sociological factors enflamed it readers may be surprised to discover that even the terminology of dispensationalists and covenant theologians originated in the 1930s disputes that the vast majority of the original protagonists on both sides were presbyterians and that soteriology rather than eschatology was the original bone of contention between them this study examines how two respective strands of fundamentalism came to identify one another as theological rivals as they each vied for position in their recently formed separatist bodies the significance of disagreements over dispensationalism is explored in the founding of the orthodox presbyterian and bible presbyterian churches and then as the debate traveled southward the response of the pcus is examined with special attention given to the consummative report of an ad hoc committee that found dispensationalism to be out of harmony with the westminster doctrinal standards significant misunderstandings that impeded fruitful dialogue from the beginning are clarified particularly those that have persisted most stubbornly to the present day perhaps most surprising of all the reader will discover that nearly all of the original points of debate between dispensationalists and covenant theologians have since been resolved as each side has honed its position in light of pertinent critiques why has this development gone almost unnoticed this study suggests an answer and proposes that understanding how the feud began may hold the key to rapprochement today
