when war broke out between the united states and great britain in 1812 neither side was prepared for the conflict as evidenced by their respective fortifications the most sophisticated and modern fortifications were those built by the us corps of engineers to protect some of the main port cities these included fort mifflin in philadelphia fort mchenry in baltimore and castle william in new york the british also heavily fortified their main harbor at halifax and their main center of power at quebec however elsewhere especially in the interior fortifications were old neglected or only hastily erected the forts at detroit and mackinac were much as the british had left them in 1796 this book covers all of the main fortifications of the conflict those that faced the crashing of guns and those whose intimidation played a part in the grand strategy of the war

this book seeks to show that it is the same sunlight that falls on the homes of the east and the west it also leads us to consider distant companions such as the chinese boy and girl as true small peoples humans like them and thus think more kindly of them and thus the mission of this book will have been fulfilled unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy in the Chinese Boy and Girl Isaac Taylor Headland provides a vibrant tapestry of childhood in late Qing dynasty China engaging readers with an intimate exploration of the culture's games, folklore, and educational ethos. Headland's literary craftsmanship embodies a diligent anthropological study flavored with an evocative narrative style, thus offering a window into the everyday lives of Chinese children at the turn of the 20th century. This work's preservation by Digital Publishing underscores its value as a cultural artifact, inviting contemporary audiences to cherish it within its literary context and as a part of world literature s enduring legacy isaac taylor headland s sojourn as a resident missionary and educator in china equipped him with an authentic perspective of chinese culture and customs his immersion in the society he wrote of bears the hallmark of genuine storytelling his empathetic portrayal of the youth allows the reader to discern the pedagogical and social structures of the time and his writing serves as an important conduit for understanding the rich textures of chinese childhood refracted through the lens of genuine experience and scholarly contemplation for enthusiasts of cultural studies and ethnography the chinese boy and girl is an indispensable addition to one s library headland s scholarly yet accessible approach offers an enlightening read for both academics and lay readers alike engendering a deeper appreciation for the cultural and historical contexts that shape societies in a world where cross cultural understanding is more pertinent than ever this book emerges as not only a scholarly resource but a bridge between times and traditions excerpt from the chinese boy and girl no thorough study of chinese child life can be made until the wall of chinese exclusiveness is broken down and the homes of the east are thrown open to the people of the west glimpses of that life however are available sufficient in number and character to give a fairly good idea of what it must be the playground is by no means always hidden least of all when it is the street the chinese nurse brings her chinese rhymes stories and games into the foreigner s home for the amusement of its little ones chinese kindergarten methods and appliances have no superior in their ingenuity and their ability to interest as well as instruct in the matter of travelling shows and jugglers also no country is better supplied and these are chiefly for the entertainment of the little ones about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works when mrs spring fragrance first arrived in seattle she was unacquainted with even one word of the american language five years later her husband speaking of her said there are no more american words for her learning and everyone who knew mrs spring fragrance agreed with mr spring fragrance mr spring fragrance whose business name was sing yook was a young curio merchant though conservatively chinese in many respects he was at the same time what is called by the westerners americanized mrs spring fragrance was even more americanized next door to the spring fragrances lived the chin yuens mrs chin yuen was much older than mrs spring fragrance but she had a daughter of eighteen with whom mrs spring fragrance was on terms of great friendship the daughter was a pretty girl whose chinese name was mai gwi far a rose and whose american name was laura nearly everybody called her laura even her parents and chinese friends laura had a sweetheart a youth named kai tzu kai tzu who was american born and as ruddy and stalwart as any young westerner was noted amongst baseball players as one of the finest pitchers on the coast he could also sing drink to me only with thine eyes to laura s piano accompaniment now the only person who knew that kai tzu loved laura and that laura loved kai tzu was mrs spring fragrance the reason for this was that although the chin yuen parents lived in a house furnished in american style and wore american clothes yet they religiously observed many chinese customs and their ideals of life were the ideals of their chinese forefathers therefore they had betrothed their daughter laura at the age of fifteen to the eldest son of the chinese government school teacher in san francisco the time for the consummation of the betrothal was approaching laura was with mrs spring fragrance and mrs spring fragrance was trying to cheer her i had such a pretty walk today said she i crossed the banks above the beach and came back by the long road in the green grass the daffodils were blowing in the cottage gardens the currant bushes were flowering and in the air was the perfume of the wallflower i wished laura that you were with me laura burst into tears that is the walk she sobbed kai tzu and i so love but never ah never can we take it together again
