marcel dupré's career as an organist spanned the first seven decades of the 20th century and took him all over europe north america and australasia he delighted vast audiences wherever he played and attracted large numbers of enthusiastic students for whom his church of st sulpice in paris and his home at meudon were their musical mecca dupré had a profound influence on a host of musicians who sought his guidance and as a composer for the organ his place in the historical line of J.S. Bach, the Couperins, César Franck, Widor, and Vierne is assured. Graham Steed is recognized for his skilled and musicianly advocacy of Dupré's compositions and he brings a keen and discerning intelligence to his analyses.

Since the 1981 publication of the first edition, Cameron McGraw's Piano Duet Repertoire has been a trusted guide for duet performers. This second edition, edited and substantially expanded by Christopher and Katherine Fisher, brings the volume into the 21st century, adding over 500 new or updated composer entries and nearly 1,000 new work entries to the volume. A testament to the renewed interest in piano duet playing, entries are arranged alphabetically by composer and include both pedagogical and concert repertoire. The annotations and the grade level indications provide piano teachers a wealth of instructional guidance. The book also contains updated appendices listing collections and duet works with voice and other instruments. This new edition features a title index and a list of composers by nationality, making it a convenient and indispensable resource.
