the bestselling author of the tao of pooh offers a uniquely authentic translation of the enduring tao te ching based on the meanings of the ancient chinese characters in use when the taoist classic was written from benjamin hoff author of the tao of pooh and the te of piglet which have sold millions of copies worldwide comes the eternal tao te ching a new translation of the chinese philosophical classic the tao te ching the eternal tao te ching is the first translation to employ the meanings of the pre writing brush characters in use 2 400 years ago when the classic was written rather than relying on the often different meanings of the more modern brush characters as other translations have done hoff points out in his chapter notes the many incidents of meddling and muddling that have been made over the centuries by scholars and copyists and he corrects the mistakes and removes such tampering from the text hoff also makes the provocative claim and demonstrates by revealing clues in the text that the tao te ching s author was a young nobleman hiding his identity rather than the long alleged author the old master of legend lao tzu and hoff s chapter notes shed new light on the author s surprisingly modern viewpoint with a selection of lyrical color landscape photographs by the author this is a unique and uniquely accessible presentation of the tao te ching christ the eternal tao shows lao tzu s tao teh ching as a foreshadowing of what would be revealed by christ and lao tzu himself as a far eastern prophet of the incarnate god back cover the only comprehensive critical anthology of theological and historical aspects related to florovsky s thought by an international group of leading academics and church personalities it is the only book in english translation of florovsky s key study in french the body of the living christ an orthodox interpretation of the church the contributors tackle a broad range of subjects that comprise the theological legacy of one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century the essays examine the life and work of florovsky his theology and theological methodology as well as ecclesiology and ecumenism a must have volume for those who study florovsky and his legacy this book articulates a contextual pneumatology from a perspective of the eastern idea of ch i ki in korean rather than understanding the spirit from a westernized philosophical perspective this book utilizes east asian categories rooted in the i ching and asian religions in dialogue with such prominent western theologians as barth pannenberg moltmann and harvey cox the result is an exciting interaction between the bible traditions of the west and experiences of the spirit rooted in east asia yun argues that the formal dimension of the spirit sangjeok is present and active in all cultures and religions while the material dimension of the spirit muljeok is categorically revealed and embodied through the life of jesus christ the event of pentecost and charisms given to the church in making his case he mediates a creative balance between countercultural and exclusivist models on the one hand and pluralistic and anthropocentric models on the other tao te ching also commonly known as lao tzu is one of the most important chinese classics and has had great influence on chinese thought it is regarded as the bible of taoism and is by far the most frequently translated chinese classic with over thirty translations into english alone why do we do religion religion appears in human life because every human being even if not fully aware of it lives in a land of mystery with rushing rivers of freedom imposing mountains of care and wild seas of tranquility this land of mystery penetrates the land of ordinary living at every point awe is our experience of this ever present eternity this book is about how the awe that is happening in our everyday lives is key to understanding both the renewal of christianity and the need for non bigoted dialogue among all religions on earth
