this book is an introduction to three questions on love according to st thomas aquinas summa theologiae i ii qq 26 28 these three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 it is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will the purpose is to present the thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective it aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader the thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us the worth of a love depends on its object and end st thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest the method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of aquinas assumes the scope of the work is limited to three questions st i ii qq 26 28 references to interpretative disputes of aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers these books show how several readers can proclaim the passion well rather than simply dividing the passion into the parts this book allows the evangelist s understanding of the passion to be heard and pondered you ll also find proclamation tips and suggestions for musical refrains acclamations and hymns the cover is suitable for use in the liturgy and the type and the use of sense lines allow for ease of proclamation the text of the english version is that of the revised u s lectionary the text of the spanish version corresponds to the mexican lectionary the passion is the climactic event in each of the gospels this volume elucidates the passion in its historical background and explores its theological breadth and depth with scholarly finesse and pastoral awareness the author sets the vibrant message of the passion speaking to our lives and times in this book thomas h bestul constructs the literary history of the latin passion narratives placing them within their social cultural and historical contexts he examines the ways in which the passion is narrated and renarrated in devotional treatises paying particular attention to the modifications and enlargements of the narrative of the passion as it is presented in the canonical gospels of particular interest to bestul are the representations of jews women and the body of the crucified christ bestul argues that the greatly enlarged role of the jews in the passion narratives of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries is connected to the rising anti judaism of the period he explores how the representations of women particularly the virgin mary express cultural values about the place of women in late medieval society and reveal an increased interest in female subjectivity in this companion to devotions on the passion author paul thigpen takes readers on a 40 day journey through the heart rending last hours of jesus filled with key passages from scripture and thoughtful reflections thigpen also includes the vivid meditations of anne catherine emmerich and maria of agreda who long ago wrote about the harsh reality of jesus death on the cross readers will kneel with jesus in gethsemane stand before herod and pontius pilate experience the scourging at the pillar weep with mary on golgotha and watch in horror as christ is crucified finally readers will shout for grateful joy for the priceless gift god gives us in the sacrifice of his son in this wonderful meditation book perfect for lent or any time of the year the great spiritual writer and monk presents profound short reflections on gospel passages about the passion and death of christ each chapter focusing on a specific aspect of the passion of our lord gives a prayer a meditation and spiritual advice and closes with another short prayer amazon
