dr stephen j briggs presents his education and compassion as a medical physician and writer within the lordas ministry raised in a warm and friendly town known as titusville pennsylvania he felt the pain of losing his mother to cancer when at the young age of thirteen years old rebuilding his life from that day forward he married and divorced having been gifted with four wonderful children during the twenty one years of marriage his drive to serve and enlighten people lead him through the education of psychology sociology and several studies in english among many other subjects to establish and maintain research presentable to aid others in there quest for aself improvement a his extensive efforts gained him high honors at his graduation and were an important application in his research concerning the many varieties of people their race creed culture religion customs and methods of expressing their emotions his love for fellow human beings echoed in his heart the need to present avenues of improvement that could be utilized by the many that read and meditated on his findings and how the presented knowledge could effect the readeras life personally does it feel like youre always striving but never arriving what would it be like if life wasnt so hard if you had more time and energy its the question were all trying to find the answer to where is happiness and how do we get it this is a practical self improvement guide on surviving modern life rediscover the art of happiness find meaning and purpose and create a life you love it seems like we live on fast forward as a result were living a fast life not a good life in which we can do more things in less hours of the day but spend less time doing the things that really matter over the past few years i have transformed my own life this involved overcoming challenges discovering my true self and finding the courage to leave everything i know to walk my own path and make my dreams a reality i learned a lot about myself and even more about life and happiness along the way this book doesnt create happiness for you its already there inside it will empower you to realise your potential improve your life and achieve your dreams jess uncovers the key to creating a happier life and leads by example her perspective shines a bright light at a much needed time let her guide you this book will help shannon kaiser best selling author of adventures for your soul find your happy just give me your last name is a book that was born out of the life of a frustrated single waiting endlessly for love this book takes you through my journey of finding true love in singleness and becoming whole in that process the aim of this book is to give you a different perspective to single life and to help you embrace your single journey as you hope to embrace the marriage journey the book is about finding the silver lining in the seemingly cloud of single life and letting that lining trump the cloud until the gloss of your single life is evident to the world my hope is that as you read this book you will prioritize finding and giving love as a single person instead of waiting for love to find you this book will move you to the front seat of your single life have you switch to cruise mode and soar the length and breadth of singleness in confidence this book will make you laugh get you thinking and ultimately move you to action that will birth the change you always hoped for there are people who learned to be responsible by disappearing from their own lives who grew up believing that doing everything right meant putting themselves last and that taking care of others mattered more than listening to their own limits this book is written for those who fulfilled every obligation met every expectation showed up for everyone and yet ended up feeling strangely empty inside unsure of when they stopped being included in their own life with a warm human and deeply honest tone these pages help you understand how responsibility slowly turned into self forgetting you will see how this pattern forms quietly how you learn to prioritize what is expected over what is felt how saying yes becomes automatic and how being reliable starts to cost you your energy your emotions and your sense of inner presence the book gently explains that this way of living did not come from strength or balance but from adaptation and the need to be valued through usefulness as you read you will recognize how always fulfilling obligations can drain you emotionally how meeting external demands leaves little space to feel alive inside and why the emptiness you feel is not ingratitude or failure but accumulated emotional neglect toward yourself it explores how many people learned to measure their worth by what they carry fix or sustain and how this constant self sacrifice slowly disconnects them from their needs desires and inner voice this book is for those who rarely fail but never rest for those who are dependable yet emotionally exhausted for those who struggle to stop without guilt and to listen to themselves without feeling irresponsible it addresses silent self abandonment excessive responsibility emotional fatigue and the inner void that appears when life is lived only in service of duties it does not offer productivity tools or motivational slogans but understanding clarity and a gentler way to redefine what responsibility truly means written with empathy and emotional depth the book invites you to question the belief that being responsible requires self erasure you will learn that caring for yourself does not make you unreliable that setting limits is not a failure and that responsibility does not have to mean losing yourself in the process being responsible should not cost you your inner life if you confused being responsible with forgetting about yourself and now feel empty despite doing everything right this book can accompany you as you understand that loss and begin to include yourself again sometimes real responsibility begins the moment you stop abandoning yourself and allow your own needs to matter too we are brought up in a world where living in fear is both encouraged and accepted its normal to feel doubt to feel guilt to feel anger to feel a failure its normal to lack enjoyment self confidence and fulfilment its normal to live our lives according to what other people want of us or what we think other people want of us and to feel that in a world where we constantly criticise and compare were simply not good enough but good enough for what and in whose view its time to turn that thinking around you are good enough you were born with confidence and a healthy self esteem you were born to smile more you were born to feel ease to feel well and to listen to your heart and your intuition and you can reconnect with that you you can live true to yourself and you can feel contentment joy and harmony you can find peace acceptance and inner strength you are perfect human worthy you are special you are you and the world needs you free the spirit thats still burning deep inside you and shine you are and you can
