in his fifth collection of law firm humor kanter lets us see lawyers from the point of view of their clients and other outsiders he shares with us the humorous perspectives of everyone from clients jurors and accountants to the mother of a new associate trying to drum up business for her little girl a homeless person caught in a lawyer s well meaning scheme to make him a charitable corporation and the child of a two lawyer couple who can t run a lemonade stand without everything becoming a major issue

dr christa k dixon 1935 2003 grew up during the time of world war 2 where her father a german confessing church pastor regularly visited american pow camps and young christa heard african american soldiers singing spirituals her fascination grew but dixon s interests became quite focused on her interest in how the famous spirituals interpreted the bible in the mid 1960s dr dixon earned her phd working on negro spirituals in germany and published the text that formed from her years of research and long lasting passion for the spirituals she heard during her visits to the prisoner camps with her father a work of careful analysis and scholarship dixon s study has since been out of print but now newly translated and presented for an audience to rediscover in John Lovell's important 1972 monograph Black Song: The Forge and the Flame he wrote perhaps the most intensive study of biblical influences in the spiritual. It is found in Christa Dixon's Wesen und Wandel geistlicher Volkslieder: Negro Spirituals. Her analyses are not only deeply intensive but quite creative. In this book Drs. Kim R. Harris and Daniel I. Smith, Christopher provide not only a translation of the published German work but also contribute two new essays to accompany this timeless study as both modern critique and long overdue appreciation.

Articles on comedy in Arthurian romance: French, Dutch, Italian, Scottish, and English. The texts analyzed underline the wide dissemination of the Arthurian story in medieval and post-medieval Europe from Scotland to Italy. While the various analyses of the manifestations of comedy refute the notion of romance as a humorless genre, indeed the comic treatment of conventional themes and motifs appears to be not only characteristic of later romance but an essential element of the genre from its beginnings and from its earliest development. Authors of Arthurian romance from Chrétien de Troyes to Malory, writing in French, Italian, Middle Dutch, and Middle English, and the creators of an Irish prose tale all question the fundamental assumptions of romance and romance values through the medium of comedy. The theme of comedy in Arthurian romance has been developed from the original session at the Arthurian Congress in Toulouse.
