i served was written differently from most other vietnam memoirs instead of being a chronological recitation of my experiences growing up in the orphanage and then going to vietnam and serving with co f 51st long range patrol airborne infantry i made its focus be the characters in the story that is its greatest strength and what makes it such a good read because i focused so closely on character you really get to care about the person don hall because you know what makes him tick what is important to him and what drives him you are also engaged by the other people you meet in the story because they are so clearly drawn you don t have to be a military buff to enjoy the book i served is a factual story backed up by official u s army records col william c maus the man who formed f 51st lrp told me where to find that documentation i also have copies of handouts we received when we went to recondo school before he died he told me how much he enjoyed reading the book he praised me for having written such a great story about a unit he was proud to have commanded he was a visionary who knew our unit was the vanguard for future u s army military strategy and tactics i remember his telling me at the time that f 51st lrp was making history being just a naïve 19 year old staff sergeant i didn't understand the significance of that statement i do now the current print and ebook versions of i served are a second edition to the original 1994 hardbound edition with a revised preface and afterword a new war stories section with stories from other men with whom i served and new photographs

honor dishonored is the true story of a platoon of young american marines serving honorably in a war that unfairly became synonymous with brutality and dishonor while returning veterans of other military engagements were touted as heroes and welcomed home with open arms men returning from vietnam were spit upon cursed and accused of countless atrocities emotionally and physically scared by their tours of duty surviving in the worst possible conditions and against impossible odds these men mostly barely out of their teens were treated as pariahs upon their return home home to the country that had sent them overseas in the first place often against their will war is savage by nature and while there are exceptions to every rule the men who fought in vietnam were brave noble and self sacrificing however the warrior the fighting men on the front lines were under supported by the military machine we've all seen the movies heard the horror stories and debated whether or not the american military should or should not have been over there in the first place but what we haven't been able to see to understand is what it was really like over there without the glorification and goreification of hollywood or the rampant propaganda that came from both sides of the debate told that they should be ashamed of their participation those who were lucky enough to survive to tell the tale quickly realized that no one wanted to listen but maybe the time has come this is their story
