your word that you will never leave me or forsake me I trust you Lord and know that you will guide my steps and lead me to victory Lord I thank you for the gift of life and the opportunity to live for you I declare that my body is your temple and that I am healthy and strong I claim the promise that your healing power will flow through me today and that I will experience wholeness in every area of my life Father I thank you for the gift of my family and friends I declare that I will have strong healthy and fulfilling relationships I claim the promise that you will go before me and make my paths straight I trust in your guidance and know that you will lead me to the right people at the right time Conclusion 3 Commanding your morning prayer is not about controlling God or dictating His will Its about coming before Him with confidence acknowledging His power and aligning our will with His Its about stepping into the fullness of the promises He offers and walking in faith knowing that He is working in our lives to bring us to victory By taking the time to engage in this powerful practice we can transform our days from reactive to proactive moving from fear to faith and from uncertainty to assurance We can step into our purpose embrace our potential and live a life that is truly commanded by the divine Call to Action Take a moment right now to find a quiet space and begin crafting your own commanding morning prayer Embrace the power of intentionality and experience the difference it makes in your life You may just discover a new level of faith confidence and purpose in your relationship with the divine the inspiring new book from the author of emotional bullshit reveals why no one is to blame but everyone s accountable for many a rare day goes by in which the need to blame does not arise be it to cover one's own errors or just to assign an unfortunate event some kind of name i.e if only x hadn't said x we wouldn't be in this mess and even for those who are somewhat better at keeping the impulse in check it is still there according to psychologist carl alasko blame is such an intrinsic part of how we humans communicate that we rarely take a look at what we're actually doing and how it can affect our relationships in this book alasko reveals that the need to assign blame when something bad happens stems from a very deep desire we all share to see justice done understandable when a grave crime has been committed but it can become a dangerous habit if we begin to operate as though placing blame were somehow necessary if we want to change something or someone in our world yet this feeling that someone has to pay is seldom productive in initiating positive change in beyond blame alasko teaches readers to recognize destruction that blame causes in their lives oftentimes without their even being aware and to put an end to it once and for all the path to eliminating blame is not a quick or easy one but as carl alasko demonstrates it is a road that must be traveled if we hope to achieve true peace in our lives
