professor aldwinckle's basic theme is to argue for the necessity of going beyond the science and phenomenology of religion to deal with the truth claims of various forms of religious faith aldwinckle makes a substantial case against modern tendencies toward religious syncretism and a convincing case for the uniqueness of the christian faith against the charge that such claims for christ entail religious imperialism arrogance or exclusivism aldwinckle makes a strong case for living nearer the spirit of the one whose unique role we affirm and profess russell aldwinckle is professor emeritus at mcmaster divinity school hamilton ontario canada publisher description using feminist theology as a tool to expose the male centred bias of classical theology ruether articulates a faith which incorporates both genders in their totality and which embraces a full humanity whereas the traditional paradigm begets domination and subordination ruether s feminism seeks a mutuality which allows for variety and particularly in women and men examining ways in which the female has been uncomfortably accommodated within the christian tradition in ecclesiology and mariology the author looks at ways of rehabilitating these images and engages creatively in the areas of the doctrine of creation christology ministry and eschatology at the heart of this work is the argument that the dominant christian tradition if it is challenged and corrected by feminism offers viable and credible categories for interpreting human existence and building redemptive communities are you ready to begin experiencing an undiluted jesus benjamin corey confronts our vision of jesus head on asking the hard question is what we see and hear in the modern church all there is to the message of jesus or is there a more radical side to jesus than we have been led to believe get ready to encounter a jesus that is determined to turn over the tables of a stale ineffective and boring gospel that seeks to escape from the world instead of transforming it this radical jesus and his message invites us to reorient our lives not on christian religion but on the person of jesus calls us to live out faith in the context of authentic community with others instead of isolation includes the excluded and invites the outcast to have a seat at the table responds to enemies with a radical unexplainable love undiluted will invite you to step out of your comfort zone and into a process of rediscovering the radical counter cultural and life changing message of jesus as you do you ll discover a more vibrant faith as you embrace an undiluted jesus and his radical message
