this volume contains the major result of the work undertaken by the international research group transfer of movables which belonged to the study group on a european civil code it covers the most important aspects of the law of property in movables such as the transfer of ownership based on the transferor's right and the good faith acquisition of ownership the suggested black letter provisions are accompanied by extensive explanatory comments and comparative notes providing information on the existing rules of the eu member states as compared to book viii of the dcfr this volume contains additional and partly revised national notes extended comments translations of the black letter rules and adapted registers the principles of european law are published in co operation with oxford university press and staempfli switzerland equity is a multi faceted subject an authentic crossroads of problems the perspective of this study is as a result a mix of focuses which includes the philosophy of law general legal theory justice theory the history of law comparative law legal dogma etc in this book as in various earlier studies of the author she uses the three dimensional method which facilitates a stratified focus in agreement with three levels facts norms and values the subject of equity has never been analysed as completely as in this work it includes a dynamic study of the different types of equity throughout history and in the different legal systems the concept content limits functions and types of equity the relationship between equity and related ideas and equity in all the branches of the legal order approximately 150 million people worldwide live in legal systems in which there is both a common law and a civil law content yet there has been little comparative study of the experience of these mixed jurisdictions here the author considers these jurisdictions in a comparative framework which includes their founding and raison d'être as well as the cultural divisions of the jurists and the evolutionary tendencies of their common and civil law components in addition he examines the internal contradictions between anglo american judicial institutions methodologies and procedures and the substantive civil law the book argues that the legal systems of such far flung and diverse cultures as the philippines quebec scotland and south africa have many unique and fruitful points of comparison the conclusion is that these mixed jurisdictions form a closely related third legal family with cohesive traits and tendencies this book analyses how arbitrators make rules that guide constrain and define the process and substance of international arbitration providing a thorough and multidisciplinary analysis of the actors process and outcome of arbitral lawmaking the study shows how arbitrators create principles of law through consistent arbitral decision making and through interacting with other members of the arbitral community this book investigates and responds to the following questions what is the relationship between international arbitration and the law and courts of the seat what is the role of international tribunals in assisting and controlling investment arbitration what is the scope of arbitrators freedom in decision making what constraints limit arbitrators decision making and contribute to consistency is international arbitration capable of paying deference to past arbitral decisions which rules have arbitrators created in procedural and substantive matters what is the role and status of consistent arbitral decisions is there an arbitral legal system the answers to these questions are drawn from actual arbitral decisions made available to the public clarifying important issues about jurisdiction procedure applicable law interpretation of substantive rules and instruments and remedies this is the first overarching study of whether and to what extent international commercial and investment arbitrators create norms and even generate a legal system as such it will be of immeasurable and lasting value to arbitrators practitioners scholars arbitral institutions and international organizations worldwide for all of whom it will not only clarify our understanding of arbitral decision making and arbitrator made rules but also foster transparency and accountability in arbitral decision making
