in this major work jeffrey hopkins one of the world's foremost scholar practitioners of tibetan buddhism offers a clear exposition of the prasangika madhyamaka view of emptiness as presented in the ge luk ba tradition of tibetan buddhism in bringing this remarkable and complex philosophy to life he describes the meditational practices by which emptiness can be realized and shows throughout that far from being merely abstract these teachings can be vivid and utterly practical presented in six parts this book is indispensable for those wishing to delve deeply into buddhist thought it is becoming increasingly evident that traditional sovereignty is simply out of date instead what we might call cooperative sovereignty which focuses on communication and interaction is more responsive to the realities of interdependent economies in the twenty first century nowhere is this more salient than in the area of dispute resolution especially as labour intellectual property and the environment can no longer be evaded in trade negotiations this ground breaking book suggests that it is this shift in perspective that has given rise to the proliferation of regional trade agreements rtas and the inevitable overlaps and tensions between their provisions and those of the world trade organization wto the author examines this phenomenon in great detail and offers viable recommendations to restore coherence in the global trading system without upsetting the rights and obligations of wto member states because the wto and rtas must be viewed as layers of one system and must therefore have a relationship that extends to dispute settlement such principles of subsidiarity as autonomy mutual assistance and flexibility are key to a successful institutional relationship between the wto and rtas from this theoretical springboard the author proceeds to analyse the following issues and more the relationship between wto and rtas based on article xxiv of gatt the extent to which wto panels can apply rta law the extent to which the wto panels can hear rta claims opportunity for rta members to secure preliminary rulings and advisory opinions from the wto recognition by wto panels of the results of litigation or arbitration that took place at the rta level opportunity for rta members to appeal rta dispute settlement decisions to the wto and clarification of wto rules designed to enable rta activities or intervene if necessary major cases decided at the wto and rta levels that manifest conflict between rtas and the wto are fully analysed confronting directly the stagnation in negotiating and concluding new trade agreements at the multilateral level and the fragmentation of the international trade law system this important book shows clearly how the institutional relationship between the wto and rtas can be restructured with a view to establishing mutual recognition of the judgments of both in a nutshell the book calls for reconfiguration of wto dispute settlement body to perform functions of world trade court that is capable of hearing disputes arising between wto members rta members and non wto members it will prove invaluable to all involved in the negotiation and implementation of trade agreements at every level
