celebrating the lectionary is the catechist's go-to resource for faith formation on the lectionary and the liturgical year. This supplementary resource helps you to bring the richness of the lectionary and the liturgical year into your traditional faith formation or Catholic school program with easy-to-lead 20-minute no-prep sessions that can be adapted on the spot to meet the unique needs of your group. This resource includes materials for every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation from August 7, 2011, through June 24, 2012.

Michelle van Loon helps us treasure our time as a gift and a spiritual responsibility and God as faithfully present in all our moments and days. People rarely slow down to experience their days and so they feel rushed through life even as they begin to suspect that life lacks significance. By introducing and reintroducing us to the feasts and festivals of the Bible as well as the special celebrations of the Christian calendar, moments and days restore a sacred sense of time throughout our year, enriching our experience of each Holy Day and enlivening our experience of even the most ordinary time.

Finally, fresh, easy-to-use and customizable outlines for five brand-new themes help you plan senior high retreats. Whether you have a weekend, a day, or just hours, detailed descriptions for five gatherings are included. Who are you waiting for? A half-day retreat, parents and teens bridging the gap, an half-day retreat, a pilgrimage retreat, a one-day retreat, call and response, an overnight retreat, Jesus calls us, a weekend retreat.

Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures. This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism, whether it's through one-on-one conversations, social media, social justice, or the liturgy of worship services. At once biblical, theological, historical, and practical, this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging, well-researched, and well-organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism, covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between. Priscilla Pope-Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention. Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically, theologically, historically, and practically, allowing for easy comparison across the board. The book also includes end-of-chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model.

the pastors sandal path relates my envisioning of god in nature i was privileged to grow up with my sister and five brothers on a farm where our parents instilled in us the presence of god in our daily lives as well as in the majesty of gods nature my early schooling took place in a one room country school where our fantastic teacher incorporated the beauty of god and nature in the classroom and on field trips in the upper grades the dominican sisters assisted my parents in laying a solid faith foundation after graduation i entered st mary of the lake seminary mundelein where my faith was deepened my love of jesus increased and gods presence in nature more keenly perceived i hope my perceptions of god in nature will help the reader to encounter god in their ordinary experiences of life this book will help the reader come to a better understanding of what the restored order is and its place in the church's sacramental life it will address the historical theological and pastoral catechetical dimensions of the restored order of the sacraments of initiation it will be a general introduction to the restored order and foster discussion among readers to help them better understand the topic in relationship to their own or their parish's experience of initiation there is a lot of talk these days about how churches need to become more missional and kingdom focused but what about the families that make up our churches and often reflect the surrounding culture more than the kingdom of god christian families know that god has a better purpose for marriage and family but often don't have the slightest idea how to get there and while many books on christian marriage and family are inwardly focused on simply getting along better this book addresses the cultural influences that have taken our focus away from god's intended purpose for marriage and family and through analysis and practical suggestions recalls marriages and families to the purpose for which god intended them in the first place namely to serve god's kingdom as witnesses to a world desperately seeking deeper purpose and authenticity
