zambia doing business in zambia for everyone guide practical information and contacts zambia investment and business guide volume 2 business investment opportunities and incentives this book was originally published as a monograph in the international encyclopaedia of laws family and succession law african civil law countries are traditionally described as monist and common law countries as dualist this book illustrates that the monism dualism dichotomy is too simplistic in particular in the field of human rights academics and practitioners from across the continent illustrate how domestic courts in africa have engaged with international human rights law to interpret or fill gaps in national bills of rights the authors also consider the challenges encountered in increasing the use of international human rights law by african domestic courts back cover contrary to popular belief there is a vast body of law dealing with human rights in africa in existence today the first priority at the moment is consequently not the adoption of new norms or the creation of even more structures the most immediate challenge lies in making the existing structures work and ensuring compliance with the norms already accepted by african societies access to the relevant material constitutes a necessary precondition for any other gains in this field the aim of this reference work is therefore to make african human rights law accessible to all those involved in or interested in human rights law on the continent in order to strengthen its impact primary documents are introduced and reproduced and presented in a coherent framework the main institutions public and private dealing with human rights in africa are identified and discussed comprehensive overviews of the international human rights legal regimes applicable to africa as well as country reports are provided access to this body of law will enable judges practicing lawyers academics and other researchers as well as law reformers ngos activists and students to both ascertain and assert these rights it will also serve to ensure the development of a stronger indigenous african human rights jurisprudence rooted in local experience history culture and practices this book consequently tries to contribute towards documenting systemising and anchoring the african human rights system this publication replaces and updates the earlier human rights law in africa series which appeared on an annual basis from 1996 to 1999 in order to make the publication accessible in africa the centre for human rights and the raoul wallenberg institute in sweden have undertaken a targeted distribution campaign on the continent the print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004138810 this volume examines critical issues that all developing countries must face subjects covered include an historical insight into and description of the legal system of a third world country considerations of intellectual property regimes and suggestions for developing countries insights into the patterns of investment on a continent the bulk of whose members are third world countries and suggestions for establishing and strengthening legal arrangements in order to attract beneficial investment a critical examination of proposals made during the most recent gatt multilateral trade negotiations and pointers to global trends in the provision of financial services these chapters range from the historical to the contemporary from the descriptive to the analytical and prescriptive and from the theoretical to the empirical in toto the volume seeks to challenge scholars bureaucrats and technocrats in developing countries to critically and candidly examine the causes conditions and magnitude of underdevelopment and to propose and thoroughly critique options available to them as such the volume will be invaluable to researchers and officials involved with international development issues and third world studies contract law in zambia an introduction covers all the relevant aspects of the law of contract in zambia in both statutory and common law the book focuses on a range of topics including the theoretical aspects offer and acceptance consideration the intention to create legal relations the terms of a contract misrepresentation duress and undue influence void and illegal contracts the discharge of a contract and remedies for breach of contract the author covers important english case law and related developments however the author also examines the increasing number of cases decided by the zambian courts which domesticate and build on english law and therefore highlights the relevance of the local context and the changes that have occurred as a result of home grown adjudication contract law in zambia an introduction is intended mainly for law students but legal practitioners corporate professionals and those in related disciplines will also find the book to be an indispensable resource
