selfies are ubiquitous they can be silly or serious casual or curated within moments smart phone users can capture their image and post it across multiple social media platforms to a global audience but do we truly understand the power of image in our image saturated age how can we seek god and care for each other in digital spaces craig detweiler a nationally known writer and speaker and an avid social media user examines the selfie phenomenon placing selfies within the long history of self portraits in art literature and photography he shows how self portraits change our perspective of ourselves and each other in family dynamics education and discipleship challenging us to push past unhealthy obsessions with beauty wealth and fame detweiler helps us to develop a thoughtful biblical perspective on selfies and social media and to put ourselves in proper relation to god and each other he also explains the implications of social media for an emerging generation making this book a useful conversation starter in homes churches and classrooms each chapter ends with discussion questions and a photo assignment for creating a selfie in response to the chapter
