texas rules of evidence manual provides an updated comprehensive reference to texas evidence for both civil and criminal cases the book provides a rule by rule analysis of each rule of evidence this sturdy hard cover text is designed for heavy use in the courtroom this text helps those who are bound to use the texas rules of evidence whether it is the bench or the bar or those studying evidence while the text contains some academic discussions the book is designed to explain what a particular rule requires or prohibits to indicate what the appellate courts have said about the rules and to offer some practical pointers on using the rules the book itself has been designed to make it as useful as possible to the harried judge counsel and student who must quickly find the law following each rule is an editorial commentary on the rule explaining how the rule works what the texas courts have said about the rule and how it compares with the federal rule because texas courts often review federal precedent where they find it helpful in applying a texas rule when appropriate practical pointers are also provided on how to use the rule where the rules apply in the same fashion for both civil and criminal cases those points are discussed together on the other hand where they diverge the authors have used separate headings for civil and criminal when that seems appropriate one of the objectives of the editorial analysis in this text is to deal with the interrelationships of the various rules the authors have noted those areas where the rules differ from pre rules case law or statutory provisions some of the rules changed the prior texas evidence law and although many of the texas rules agree with the federal rules a number differ significantly praise for previous editions the evidence based protocols are designed as a primary reference and are useful substantive and timely the broader contributions of useful the research in this book is the result of work begun in the summer of 2003 when the author became involved with the research team investigating the harbour area of classe in a joint project of the department of history culture civilisation then department of archaeology the superintendence of archaeological heritage of emilia romagna with the fondazione ravennantica the author carried out the cleaning and conservation of metal objects from the excavation particularly the coins part of this work was realised in a postgraduate dissertation that discussed the evidence of the 2002 2003 excavation campaigns in the harbour area of classe the archaeological research of the harbour carried out between 2001 and 2005 brought to light a total of 2564 coins most of which are illegible and in alloys of copper documenting a chronological range between the 2nd century bc and the 8th century ad the investigation of the basilica of san severo started in the summer of 2006 and is still ongoing 2014 however the coins included in this work are those retrieved between 2006 and 2010 only in this case the excavations brought to light a total of 224 coins in alloys of silver copper and billon with a large variety of emissions that witness the settlement of the site between the 1st century bc and the 14th century ad with a few sporadic modern and contemporary finds of the 20th century the archaeological contexts studied represent a focal point for the reconstruction of the history of the territory and cover a wide chronological span that is useful for defining the characteristics of the settlement housing productive areas etc and its evolution document from the year 2019 in the subject law european and international law intellectual properties tufts university language english abstract the focus of this book is the analysis of male sexual crimes in international criminal justice the first part of the present research work is focused on the legal analysis of the relevant articles of international criminal court s statute regarding the obligation of cooperation between states for the punishment of serious crimes against humanity and war judicial development starting with the ad hoc tribunals and arriving at causes at various stages of proceedings still ongoing in the international criminal court icc opens doctrinal and comparative national debates especially in the case of lacking states cooperation seeking to elaborate specific topics such as the obligation of states cooperation requests for assistance during preliminary investigations during inquires and confidential information court assistance to states parties participating in the statute suspending the execution of a request the role of the prosecutor and the non assistance of some states impede the development and operation of international criminal justice the second part has attempted to analyze sexual crimes and especially the crime of male rape the jurisprudence of international criminal tribunals and the icc have tried to qualify rape either as a crime of genocide in the form of serious and physical injuries even if not necessarily permanent let b art 6 of the rome statute or as a crime against humanity where there are elements of context and above all material elements that emerge from the definitions given by the ad hoc tribunals and the elements of crimes or even as a war crime in case it is implemented to that of sexual violence according to a gender specific relationship to speciem judges through the jurisprudence have included in this context any conduct of a sexual type of aggression to human dignity that does not consist in an act of penetration and that does not involve physical contact the contrasts are always open due to the lack of dealing with a particular crime and difficult to prove it or testify before an international court the indication on the level of gravity of the crime is necessary for the relevance of sexual violence and rape as crimes against humanity that we will see in the coming years
