if zechariah s vision report zechariah 1 8 6 8 reflects the seer s visionary experience how does that impact our understanding of the gradual growth of the text lena sofia tiemeyer builds on the work done in her previous book zechariah and his visions bloomsbury t t clark 2014 to demonstrate that the visionary material forms the primary textual layer the oracular texts constitute chronologically

later interpretations zechariah and or later authors editors sought guidance in the earlier vision accounts and the oracular material reflects these endeavours tiemeyer s investigation is guided by the question what is the latter material doing with the former is it enforcing contradicting or adding to it using a ratio composed of the difference between the intratexts and intertexts of zech 1 8 tiemeyer shows how this ratio is higher in the oracular material than in the visionary material this difference points to the different origin and the different purpose of the two sets of material while the earlier vision report draws on images found primarily in other biblical vision reports the later oracular material has the characteristics of scribal interpretation by drawing on earlier material it seeks to anchor its proposed interpretations of the various vision accounts within the israelite textual tradition it is clear that the divine oracles were added to give modify and specify the meaning of the earlier vision report
