This is the second edition being published in June 2025 of this work, which was first published in 2010. It incorporates minor changes, improvements, and corrections over the 2010 edition. The 2010 edition was based on the 1951 version of the voluminous and world-renowned work, "The English Translation of the Holy Quran" with extensive explanatory footnotes by Maulana Muhammad Ali. In 1951, he produced the 2010 edition starting from the 1951 work. The language of the translation was updated, and the explanatory footnotes were abridged. The Arabic text was also omitted. Details of the updating were provided in the book in order to explain and justify the linguistic changes.

The Quran, the Holy Scripture of Islam, is the record of Muhammad's oral teaching.

The Holy Quran, literally meaning the recitation, also romanized as Qur'an or Koran, is the central religious text of Islam. Muslims believe it to be a revelation from Allah SWT. The Quran is divided into chapters (Surah) in Arabic, which are then divided into verses (Ayah). Muslims believe that the Quran was verbally revealed by God to Muhammad through the Angel Gabriel (Jibril) gradually over a period of approximately 23 years, beginning on 22 December 609 CE when Muhammad was 40 and concluding in 632 CE, the year of his death. Muslims regard the Quran as the most important miracle of Muhammad, a proof of his prophethood, and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to prophet Adam PBUH and ended with Muhammad. The word "Quran" occurs some 70 times in the text of the Quran, although different names and words are also said to be references to the Quran. This particular edition was translated by two Madina-based scholars, Dr. Muhsin Khan and Dr. Taqi ud Din Hilali. It features frequent footnotes gleaned by the translators from Tafsir at Tabari, Al Qurtubi, and Tafsir Ibn Kathir, and Sahih Al Bukhari. It is unique, remarkable, and distinguished for its crystal-clear, precise, and pristine meanings. The work is recognized, approved, and widely attributed throughout the world. It offers commentary and Hadith related to the verse. This unique combination of commentary and relevant Ahadith makes this a very useful study reference tool. This edition consists of the English translation only. About the publisher: The Noble Quran Encyclopedia is an effort towards providing reliable translations and exegesis of the Quran in various languages. The project is managed and run by IslamHouse, a subsidiary of the Islamic Dawah Office in Rabwah, Riyadh, KSA. The project currently hosts multiple translations in various widely spoken languages, including English, French, Spanish, German, Turkish, Bosnian, Vietnamese, Uzbek, Tajik, Amharic, Hausa, Hindi, Urdu, among others. Several other languages are currently being translated, including Chinese, Bulgarian, Russian, and Korean.

The Quran, literally meaning the recitation, also romanized as Koran, is the central religious text of Islam. Muslims believe it to be a revelation from God, Arabic Allah. It is widely regarded as the finest piece of literature in the Arabic language. Muslims consider the Quran to be the only book that has been protected by God from distortion or corruption. Quranic chapters are called Suras, and verses are called Ayahs. Muslims believe that the Quran was verbally revealed from God to Muhammad through the Angel Gabriel (Jibril) gradually over a period of approximately 23 years, beginning on 22 December 609 CE when Muhammad (PBUH) was 40 and concluding in 632 CE, the year of his death. Shortly after Muhammad's death, the Quran was collected by his companions using written Quranic materials and everything that had been memorized of the Quran. Muslims regard the Quran as the most important miracle of Muhammad, the proof of his prophethood, and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to Adam and ended with Muhammad. The Quran assumes familiarity with major narratives recounted in the Jewish and Christian scriptures. It summarizes some, dwells at length on others, and in some cases presents alternative accounts and interpretations of events. The Quran describes itself as a book of guidance. It sometimes offers detailed accounts of specific historical events and it often emphasizes the moral significance of an event over its narrative sequence the quran is used along with the hadith to interpret sharia law during prayers the quran is recited only in arabic someone who has memorized the entire quran is called a hafiz some muslims read quranic ayahs verses with elocution which is often called tajweed during the month of ramadan muslims typically complete the recitation of the whole quran during tarawih prayers inimitability of the quran or i jaz is the belief that no human speech can match the quran in its content and form the quran is considered an inimitable miracle by muslims effective until the day of resurrection and thereby the central proof granted to muhammad in authentication of his prophetic status the concept of inimitability originates in the quran where in five different verses challenges opponents to produce something like the quran if men and sprites banded together to produce the like of this quran they would never produce its like not though they backed one another 17 88 so the suggestion is that if there are doubts concerning the divine authorship of the quran come forward and create something like it from the ninth century numerous works appeared which studied the quran and examined its style and content medieval muslim scholars including al jurjani d 1078ce and al baqillani d 1013ce have written treatises on the subject discussed its various aspects and used linguistic approaches to study the quran others argue that the quran contains noble ideas has inner meanings maintained its freshness through the ages and has caused great transformations in individual level and in the history some scholars state that the quran contains scientific information that agrees with modern science the doctrine of miraculousness of the quran is further emphasized by muhammad s illiteracy since the unlettered prophet could not have been suspected of composing the quran
