this book examines the public assertion of self by men and women in england france and germany from the renaissance to romanticism

this book is the first in a two volume project that provides the first systematic interpretation of martin heidegger s fundamental ontology as a critical social ontology it argues that fundamental ontology is at its core an emancipatory enterprise in that it is animated by an intent shared with critical theory viz to make philosophy concrete for the sake of individual and collective freedom focused on division one of being and time this volume maintains that the possibilities of individual emancipation and self actualization are inextricably bound to their environmental and intersubjective preconditions an adequate ontology of the self therefore is possible only as a social ontology to fulfill its emancipatory aims however it is necessary to show that the fact that individuals are always already appropriated by society does not preclude the possibility of authentic self appropriation hence this volume critically reconstructs the core commitments of the appropriative approach to social ontology and distinguishes between the foundational and peripheral aspects of fundamental ontology the final part addresses important criticisms that have impeded a fruitful dialogue between fundamental ontology and critical theory to clear the ground for a fresh re appraisal of the former as an emancipatory project the privacy of the self was the first collection of papers showing the development of the author s thinking over twenty five years of clinical work he was nurtured in the tradition of anna freud john rickman and d w winnicott but his contribution to psychoanalytic literature was a distinctive and personal one what emerges from this book is the natural and private crystallization of his experiences with his patients and teachers as he says in his preface psychoanalysis is an extremely private discipline of sensibility and skill the practice of psychoanalysis multiplies this privacy into a specialized relationship between two persons who through the very nature of their exclusivity with each other change each other the first thing i wish to say about my work reported in these papers is that my patients have helped me become and personalize my potential of thought affectivity and effort into a way of life that i find deeply satisfying a collection of writings and artwork reflecting a cross section of children s thoughts about god as selected by the compiler from more than 4500 submissions this book discusses the reality of human being by pointing out some of the very fundamental issues that remain hidden from the eyes of the modern and post modern western thought by elaborating mulla sadra s concept of soul s origination from the body and its survival through the spirit this book explains how the human soul develops stage by stage in a gradual manner from a vegetative body in the womb by using mulla sadra s principles of causality this book shows how god and his angels create man and other species on the earth without denying darwin s evolutionary theory in this reference the role of metaphysical worlds in actualizing human knowledge is also discussed this book also shows how the human life is a journey back towards its origin i e towards god and how this journey would continue even after death in this reference this book also explains the principles on the basis of which human soul would continue its life in the post humus world this book also clarifies the benefits of focusing onto the self and how this focus may lead to the realization of the eternal self of god in this way it shows how it is not impossible to experience the post humus conditions even before death it also specifies what kind of lifestyle may possibly ensure the occurrence of such mystic experiences
