authors shannon hengen and ashley thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed canadian author margaret atwood since 1988 including her novels cat s eye the robber bride alias grace and the 2000 booker prize winner the blind assassin rather than just including atwood s books this guide includes all of atwood s works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry adaptations of atwood s works are also included as are some of her more public quotations secondary entries i e interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation the individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories atwood s works adaptations quotations interviews scholarly resources reviews of atwood s works and reviews of adaptations of atwood s works the book also includes a chapter entitled atwood on the as well as extensive author and subject indexes this new bibliography significantly enhances access to atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians margaret atwood a reference guide 1988 2005 will appeal not only to atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of canada s greatest writers from josephine baker s performances in the 1920s to the 1970s solidarity campaigns for angela davis from audre lorde as mother of the afro german movement in the 1980s to the literary stardom of 1993 nobel laureate toni morrison germans have actively engaged with african american women s art and activism throughout the 20th century the discursive strategies that have shaped the west german reactions to african american women s social activism and cultural work are examined in this study which proposes not only a nuanced understanding of african americanizations as a form of cultural exchange but also sheds new light on the role of african american culture for west german society culture and national identity existential constructions are a fundamental feature of many indo european languages and constructions with non referential subjects have developed in all of the latter albeit at different stages in their histories high german does not feature a prototypical existential construction that is equivalent in syntactic and pragmatic function and semantic meaning to the english existential there construction how did a prototypical existential structure originate in english why is it that high german has never developed such a construction has it ever shown a tendency towards developing one how did two closely related languages such as english and high german come to differ so much with respect to these constructions by means of investigating a variety of historical and contemporary data this study shows that not only semantic pragmatic and syntactic factors are involved which decide the choice of a certain construction but also very much the more general different linguistic development that the two languages underwent in the course of time
