religion and politics have historically clashed in modern spain but the complexity of the controversial and sometimes violent relationships between catholic values and modern political regimes continue to ride a precarious line of spiritual accommodation versus public policy leading experts on religious spanish tradition and recent historiographic findings set out to define and interrogate grey areas in the last two centuries beyond the reductive conventional notion of an ever warring two spains the soul of the nation unravels the role of religion in the country s public life following the imperial crisis of 1808 when the catholic monarchy put the role of the church at heart of political and cultural debates trauma and meaning making highlights multiple practices of meaning making after traumatic events in the lives of individuals and communities meaning making consists both in a personal journey towards a new way to exist and live in a world shattered by trauma and in public politics locating and defining what has happened in both perspectives the collection evaluates the impact achieved by naming the victim s and thus the right of the victim s to suffer from its aftermath or by refusing to recognise the traumatic event and thus the right of the victim s to respond to it a range of paradigms and techniques invite readers to consider anew the specificities of context and relationship while negotiating post traumatic survival by delineating how one makes sense of traumatic events this volume will enable readers to draw links between practices grounded in diverse disciplines encompassing creative arts textual analysis public and collective communication psychology and psychotherapy memory and memorial this volume addresses three things many people do not discuss candidly with strangers or mere acquaintances god sex and politics these can easily become topics of fierce debate particularly when taken together as has been the case with same sex marriage legislation the vatican s criticism of gender ideology or the repeatedly asserted claim that islam homosexuality and gender equality are essentially incompatible this volume investigates what is at stake in these constructions of religion and homosexuality in public discourses starting with the netherlands as a special case study it proceeds with contributions on other predominantly postsecular countries in central northern and southern europe as well as several postcommunist and postcolonial countries beyond europe combining contemporary and historical perspectives and approaches from both the humanities and the social sciences the contributors explore how national and european identities are constructed and contested in debates on religion and homosexuality chapter 2 and chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a cc by 4 0 license at link.springer.com after decades of steady progress in terms of gender and sexual rights several parts of europe are facing new waves of resistance to a so called gender ideology or gender theory opposition to progressive gender equality is manifested in challenges to marriage equality abortion reproductive technologies gender mainstreaming sex education sexual liberalism transgender rights antidiscrimination policies and even to the notion of gender itself this book examines how an academic concept of gender when translated by religious organizations such as the roman catholic church can become a mobilizing tool for and the target of social movements how can we explain religious discourses about sex difference turning into massive street demonstrations how do forms of organization and protest travel across borders who are the actors behind these movements this collection is a transnational and comparative attempt to better understand anti gender mobilizations in europe it focuses on national manifestations in eleven european countries including russia from massive street protests to forms of resistance such as email bombarding and street vigils it examines the intersection of religious politics with rising populism and nationalistic anxieties in contemporary europe includes entries for maps and atlases las circunstancias actuales en las que se desarrolla la evangelización en la sociedad española hacen que los miembros de la iglesia católica pastores y fieles sientan junto a una gran esperanza una grave preocupación por la situación de la familia y de la vida humana de los más débiles por ello los obispos españoles en su lxxvi asamblea plenaria han aprobado esta instrucción pastoral presentada por la subcomisión para la familia y la defensa de la vida se trata de una instrucción dirigida a las familias a los movimientos y asociaciones familiares y a todos los agentes de pastoral que trabajan a favor de la familia y la defensa de la vida asimismo se of rece al conjunto de la sociedad y a los gobernantes en especial a los agentes culturales y sociales educadores y profesionales de la salud
