between love and freedom interprets the figure of the revolutionary in the hindi novel by establishing its lineage in representative bengali novels as well as in the contending moralities of mahatma gandhi and bhagat singh on the idea of violence it reveals how conventional social realism and emergent modernist modes were brought together in the novelistic tradition by extending the political ideal of anti colonial revolution into domains of sexual desire and subjective expression especially in the works of agyeya jainendra and yashpal this work will deeply interest scholars and students of literature modern indian history hindi and political science the end century edition of the who s who of indian writers is an invaluable work of reference for writers publishers readers and students of literary history for ease of use the entries are arranged alphabetically by surname or part of the name preferred by the writers themselves a large number of cross references are provided to facilitate the location and identification of the writers western tradition and naturalistic hindi theatre is a critical study of the dramatic work of naturalistic hindi playwright upendranath ashk 1910 1996 the book explores modern hindi drama from its beginnings in the second half of the nineteenth century until the 1960s during this period proscenium hindi theatre which originated under western influence matured and thrived in the years after independence there was a strong resentment of western ideas and cultural influence because of political controversies with the british western influence also came to be understood as non indian in the sphere of literature this resulted in a negative stance toward the naturalistic play of hindi and those dramatists who adhered to it thus this book is a contribution to the present day cultural dialogue between east and west
