daily reflections on divine mercy was written to provide an awakening to the abundant mercy of god it offers daily reflections and prayers to help deepen the day to day faith life of every catholic so that you can understand the abundance of mercy poured forth from the heart of our savior as it is revealed in the writings of saint maria faustina kowalska divine mercy in my soul diary of saint maria faustina kowalska is soon to become a classic spiritual book that everyone is encouraged to read in their lifetime however many find this invitation intimidating not just because of the width of her book but because of the depth of its message on the divine mercy in each of saint faustina s notebook entries this book daily reflections on divine mercy was written with the hope of guiding you through saint faustina s diary and her six notebooks of reflections it can be used on its own to help you pause and reflect on the beauty of jesus messages to her or as a companion book as you simultaneously read saint faustina s diary daily reflections on divine mercy offers 365 daily teachings reflections and prayers based upon the pages of saint faustina s diary the structured way to use this daily reflection book is to do just that reflect upon one page each day

however some may feel called to skip around a bit read a few reflections at a time or return to a particular reflection through which god spoke to you therefore though this book was written with the intent of providing one reflection for each day of the year the best way to use it is any way you feel called and the way that benefits your relationship with god the most the first paragraph for each day offers this author's insights to the words and teachings of saint faustina the section of her diary used for the day's teaching is marked so that the reader can also read her diary first hand so as to see the primary source that the author of this book took inspiration from for that day's reflection though the primary text of the diary is never quoted nor are the reflections of this book exact representations of the diary they do provide the foundational basis for the spiritual message shared in each reflection the second paragraph for each day offers a short reflection put more as a question to the reader it offers the same insight in a different format so as to enter more deeply into the message of the day finally each daily reflection ends with a prayer focused upon the message and reflection for that day the reader is encouraged to pray this prayer several times ideally it is prayed first thing in the morning again during the day and again at night as an examination on how well the daily message was received as you seek to survive the world we live in allow these pages to be a font of mercy for you from god allow god's divine mercy to penetrate your heart so that you will know the abundance of his love and be more prepared to share that love with others published and distributed by marian press this bestselling diary sparked the divine mercy movement and chronicles the message that jesus the divine mercy gave to the world through a humble nun it reminds us to trust in his forgiveness and as christ is merciful so too are we instructed to be merciful to others the trade edition of this title is now in its 30th printing with more than one million copies distributed worldwide since its release in 1981 in the original polish edition this booklet from bestselling author fr michael gaitley mic gives you a brief and easy to understand introduction to the divine mercy message and devotion you'll read about the history and context of divine mercy the essential elements of the devotion and how you can live the message includes the full prayers of the divine mercy novena and st faustina's litany to divine mercy as well as two bonus appendices for over twenty years the author has researched and toured the country giving talks retreats and seminars on divine mercy most of these have been given at the request of or for the john paul ii institute of divine mercy in stockbridge massachusetts or the life foundation ministries in bernalillo new mexico the author has found that many have not seriously read st faustina's diary finding it too difficult and confusing since it does not follow the normal diary format many have attempted reading other books and found them too detailed or filled with generalities a divine mercy resource has been designed as a single resource for priests deacons religious instructors and devotees of divine mercy each chapter covers one aspect of the devotion e.g. the chaplet the image the novena etc and is complete with full quotes and footnotes at the bottom of each page as a vital resource it will further an understanding of divine mercy and the essential devotionals associated with it giving priests deacons teachers and laity the tools to promote the message mission and devotion to divine mercy note space left by author presumably for a photo the author reading the epistle during mass before the original vilnius image of divine mercy holy spirit church vilnius lithuania october 10 2001 several years ago i read the diary of st faustina about divine mercy and became devoted to the idea that gods greatest attribute is his mercy and the promise he made to those who say the divine mercy chaplet with or for a dying person that that person will die not only peacefully but also that jesus will act as the giver of divine mercy not as just judge when i actually witnessed the peaceful death of a friend for whom i prayed the regular chaplet i became a very strong believer and advocate of this prayer but jesus asks us to meditate on his sorrowful passion not just to robotically say words so i tried to put meditative thoughts to go with the prayer not to be read daily but to be a fertile resource for helping us to meditate on jesus sorrowful passion for both the chaplet and the sorrowful mysteries of the rosary the history of the divine mercy devotion is deeply rooted in the experiences and writings of a polish nun named saint faustina kowalska who lived in the early 20th century the essence of the devotion revolves around the infinite mercy of god as emphasized in the visions and teachings saint faustina received saint faustina kowalska born in 1905 in poland helena kowalska entered the congregation of the sisters of our lady of mercy in 1925 she later took the name sister maria faustina of the blessed sacrament throughout her life she claimed to have mystical experiences and visions of jesus christ particularly emphasizing his divine mercy when i walked into church the following morning i heard these words inside of me every time you enter the chapel recite the prayer that i taught you yesterday i heard in my spirit when i finished the petition this prayer will serve to appease my wrath it will be said for nine days on the rosary beads in the following way you will say hail mary one our father and i believe in god first then using the our father beads you will recite the following in order to atone for our sins as well as the sins of the entire world i offer you the body and blood soul and divinity of your dearly beloved son our lord jesus christ say the following on the hail mary beads have mercy on us and on the whole world for the sake of his sorrowful passion finally you shall say these three times have mercy on us and on the entire world holy god holy mighty one holy immortal one diary 474 476 oh what wonderful blessings i will bestow upon those who recite this chaplet my daughter please write these words down tell the world of my kindness let all people know of my boundless compassion it is an omen of the end times the day of justice will follow let them drink from the fountain of my mercy while there is still time let them benefit from the water and blood that flowed forth for them diary 848

finally the entire divine mercy message and devotion is summarized in one easy to read book explaining the teaching of jesus christ as given to st faustina understanding divine mercy by fr chris alar mic has it all written in his highly conversational and energetic style this first book in his explaining the faith series will deepen your love for god and help you understand why jesus called divine mercy mankind s last hope of salvation encounter god s mercy more profoundly now is the time for mercy is a concise guide to understanding the divine mercy message and devotion the importance of private revelation and how to be an apostle of mercy like st faustina the global war on terror the breakdown of the family continuing economic uncertainty natural disasters secularism and the fall out from the abuse crisis in the church if ever there was a need for divine mercy the time is certainly now human sinfulness has come close to destroying our world but we have not been abandoned by our heavenly father he has given us the solution to our brokenness in the divine mercy in this revised classic fr kosicki writes there is a special urgency in this message repeatedly our lord stressed to st faustina that now is the day of mercy before the coming day of judgment discover why mercy is the mission of everyone in the church this is the handbook that has introduced millions of souls to the life changing message that brings hope to a hurting world it covers every aspect of the authentic divine mercy message and devotion from the feast and hour of great mercy to the chaplet and novena as well as selected prayers from the diary of saint faustina
