this anthology features an eclectic mix of eighteen modern works by a selection of switzerland s heterogeneous community of jewish writers questions about jewish identity and the legacy of the holocaust remain current and controversial in switzerland because of the country s now well publicized economic involvement with hitler s germany and the scandal that erupted when the purported holocaust memoir of binjamin wilkomirski was revealed to be a hoax this collection includes an excerpt from a novel by daniel ganzfried the journalist who exposed the wilkomirski affair two chilling counterfactual accounts of a nazi occupied switzerland by television scriptwriter charles lewinsky an epistolary satire of contemporary swiss and jewish life by sergey hazanov a russian jewish immigrant lyrical evocations of exile by gabriele markus a memoir by renowned theatre director luc bondy strikingly harsh portraits of contemporary european life from painter and performance artist miriam cahn and a screenplay about the holocaust and jewish refugees in switzerland by swiss filmmaker stina werenfels surprising in its diversity and sometimes disturbing in its preoccupations this anthology will make it hard to generalize about jewish life in switzerland or to think in polarities such as switzerland and the jews pandemic re awakenings offers a multi level and multi faceted exploration of a century of remembering forgetting and rediscovering the influenza pandemic of 1918 1919 arguably the greatest catastrophe in human history twenty three researchers present original perspectives by critically investigating the hitherto unexplored vicissitudes of memory in the interrelated spheres of personal communal medical and cultural histories in different national and transnational settings across the globe the volume reveals how even though the great flu was overshadowed by the commemorative culture of the great war recollections of the pandemic persisted over time to re emerge towards the centenary of the spanish flu and burst into public consciousness following the outbreak of the covid 19 pandemic the chapters chart historiographical neglect while acknowledging the often unnoticed dialogues between scientific and historical discourses probe silences and trace vestiges of social and cultural memories that long remained outside of what was considered collective memory up until now migration literature has primarily been defined as texts written by migrant authors a definition that has been discussed criticised and even rejected by critics and authors alike very rarely has migration literature been understood as literature on the topic of migration which is an approach this book adopts by presenting a comparative analysis of contemporary texts on experiences of migration by focusing on specific themes and motifs in selected texts this study suggests that migration literature is a sub genre that exists in both various bodies of literature as well as various languages this book analyses english and german texts by authors such as monica ali dimitré dinev anna kim timothy mo preethi nair caryl phillips hamid sadr and vladimir vertlib among others elias canetti s 1935 novel auto da fé original german title die blendung has traditionally been difficult to interpret and the author s intentions in writing it have remained unclear science meets literature argues that auto da fé is a novel about human nature that illustrates the workings of the human mind and some universal aspects of human behavior and human social relationships canetti's insights anticipated later scientific discoveries made by cognitive social and evolutionary psychology including the existence of irrational biases in human cognition e.g. in perception beliefs and decision making the strengths and limitations of human theory of mind skills i.e. our ability to think about other people's minds and read them the establishment maintenance and reversal of dominance in social relationships between two individuals and the role of dehumanization in harmful behavior canetti intended to warn against the conviction held by some intellectuals that human nature can be denied controlled ignored or dismissed his approach in auto da fé was an original attempt at the integration of knowledge formation in sciences and humanities he pointed the way for future successful attempts at the integration of evolution cognitive science and literature as well as for the broader integration of sciences and humanities
