ours is of a noble character it never seems to them that they have served enough they have a fine impatience of their virtues it were perhaps more modest to be singly thankful that we are no worse it is not only our enemies those desperate characters it is we ourselves who know not what we do thence springs the glimmering hope that perhaps we do better than we think that to scramble through this random business with hands reasonably clean to have played the part of a man or woman with some reasonable fulness to have often resisted the diabolic and at the end to be still resisting it is for the poor human soldier to have done right well to ask to see some fruit of our endeavour is but a transcendental way of serving for reward and what we take to be contempt of self is only greed of hire and again if we require so much of ourselves shall we not require much of others if we do not genially judge our own deficiencies is it not to be feared we shall be even stern to the trespasses of others and he who looking back upon his own life can see no more than that he has been unconscionably long a dying will he not be tempted to think his neighbour unconscionably long of getting hanged it is probable that nearly all who think of conduct at all think of it too much it is certain we all think too much of sin we are not damned for doing wrong but for not doing right christ would never hear of negative morality thou shalt was ever his word with which he superseded thou shalt not to make our idea of morality centre on forbidden acts is to defile the imagination and to introduce into our judgments of our fellow men a secret element of gusto if a thing is wrong for us we should not dwell upon the thought of it or we shall soon dwell upon it with inverted pleasure excerpt from a christmas sermon i shall have been talking for twelve months 1 and it is thought i should take my leave in a formal and seasonable manner valedictory eloquence is rare and death bed say ings have not often hit the mark of the occasion charles second wit and sceptic a man whose life had been one long lesson in human in credulity an easy going comrade a manoeuvring king remembered and embodied all his wit and scepticism along with more than his usual good humour in the famous i am afraid gentlemen i am an unconscionable time a dying about the publisher forgotten books charles spurgeon the prince of preachers was very mindful of the need to avoid seeing christmas as a merely religious holiday open to commercialization and frivolity accordingly throughout most of his extensive ministry he refused to alter his teaching schedule to fit in a christmas sermon as is so common today looking through spurgeon s vast teaching archive we find only 19 instances in which special attention was given to the topic of christmas spurgeon s focus in these 19 sermons is overwhelmingly the who and why of christmas he marveled at the fact that god would send his only son into the world for people who in no way deserved it christ came into the world to save sinners that was spurgeon s focus 150 years ago we need that message now more than ever joy to the world the lord has come coming up with fresh ideas on the old old story of christmas seems to cause pastor s added anxiety at a season of the year where joy should consume our lives during the 40 plus years of ministry to the church i have written many sermons related to christmas and i want to share some of them with you the following are a sampling of those sermons which i believe will give you food for thought if you are like me you probably look more for ideas than whole sermons at best you want an outline you can work from i have expanded my thoughts as much as possible without writing out the sermon for you feel free to download the kindle version of the book maybe you have already lift off the section you want to work with and edit away each of these sermons have more information than a pastor can use in any one sermon at least i hope you don t preach that long my hope would be that you take from the sermon the parts that speak to your heart as you prepare your sermon and then leave the rest for another day my goal for sermons has always been to give a few good ideas that people can go home and think about i have never had all of the answers nor have i believed that my interpretation of the scripture passage is the best just the best i believe god let me understand at the moment beyond that i trust the holy spirit to help my listeners learn from him from the scriptures and from other teachers along the way as time goes on they will grow in their understanding and in their faith and someday like the rest of us we will know completely when we join jesus face to face in heaven i hope these sermons help you along the way as you continue to serve jesus in your preaching and teaching may you be blessed as you share the good news in the christmas story to those who might be willing to listen blessings
