story block provides a documentary history of fourteen musicals in all plus an epilogue exploring the plays of Stephen Sondheim showing how each work took shape and revealing at the same time production by production how the American musical evolved from the 1920s to the early 1960s and beyond. The book's particular focus is on the music, offering a wealth of detail about how librettist, lyricist, composer, and director work together to shape the piece, drawing on manuscript material such as musical sketches, autograph manuscripts, pre-production librettos, and lyric drafts. This block reveals the winding route the works took to get to their final form. This close attention to the nuances of musical composition and stagecraft is punctuated with trenchant social commentary and lively backstage anecdotes. Jerome Kern, Cole Porter, the Gershwins, Rodgers and Hart, Rodgers and Hammerstein, Lerner and Loewe, Kurt Weill, Frank Loesser, Leonard Bernstein, Sondheim, and other luminaries emerge as hardworking craftsmen under enormous pressure to sell tickets without compromising their dramatic vision and integrity. Opening night reviews and accounts of critical and popular response to subsequent revivals show how particular musicals have adapted to changing times and changing audiences, shedding light on why many of these innovative shows are still performed in high schools, colleges, and community theaters across the country. While others, such as Weill's One Touch of Venus or Marc Blitzstein's The Cradle Will Rock, languish in comparative obscurity.
