this book examines narratives of individual religious transformation in western european literature and culture religious individuals themes experiences and communities are widely represented in diverse literature and culture including literary texts and visual arts and media taking the subject of religious transformation as an angle from which to study constructions of religion gender and race this book reveals through various case studies what authors documentary makers film makers and playwrights consider to be important possible shifts between the old and the new continuities and discontinuities and the formation of the self the chapters demonstrate how individual religious transformations are understood to be shaped by various intersections of difference and point at the need to consider gender as always related to and co constructing religion and race this transdisciplinary and intimate study provides a fresh lens through which to examine pressing questions regarding the place and future of religion gender and race in contemporary western europe the open access version of this book available at taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives cc by nc nd 4 0 license there is something wrong with us and the world we find ourselves in in the christian tradition the concept of god s salvation describes the divine intervention to overcome this brokenness however such language might easily be misunderstood in the increasingly secular west to make the reality of the doctrine of salvation understandable relevant and attractive for europeans in the west we might begin to think of it more in terms of relationship well being and wholeness using a biblical term salvation is about the shalom of the reign of god this volume explores the lived salvation practices of faith communities and missions and their conceptualisations in the west how is the good life perceived and practiced contributors are clive marsh jan martijn abrahamse dejan aždajić k francis adebayo philip bartholomä janel kragt bakker nigel rooms karen zwijze koning hans schaeffer berdine van den toren lekkerkerker jack barensen chris james sake stoppels annemieke de jonge bert roor evelien van duffelen harvey kwiyani james butler kathy ross ross lockhart and stefan paas in an era which many now recognise as post secular the role that religions play in shaping gender identities and relationships has been awarded a renewed status in the study of societies and social change in both the global south and the global north in the 21st century religiosity is of continuing significance not only in people s private lives and in the family but also in the public sphere and with respect to political and legal systems the routledge handbook of religion gender and society is an outstanding reference source to these key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject area comprising over 40 chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into 3 parts critical debates for religions gender and society theories concepts and methodologies issues and themes in religions gender and society contexts and locations within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including activism gender analysis intersectionality and feminism oppression and liberation equality bodies and embodiment space and place leadership and authority diaspora and migration marriage and the family generation and aging health and reproduction education violence and conflict ecology and climate change and the role of social media the routledge handbook of religion gender and society is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies and gender studies the handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies politics sociology anthropology and history
