the inspirational true story of an adopted child who strives to be as ordinary as possible despite the onset of blindness but who can't help accomplishing truly extraordinary things if i could introduce you to ten amazing people whose influence could transform your life by energizing your spiritual quest they would be the nine visionaries featured in the great search plus a tenth John Philip Newell himself what a treasure this book is enthusiastically recommended Brian D McLaren author of Life After Doom in the great tradition of authors who leave church but remain spiritual such as Barbara Brown Taylor Rob Bell the author of Sacred Earth Sacred Soul forges a new path toward a true spiritual home embracing a deep connection to the natural world the story of Adam and Eve's fall from innocence in the Garden of Eden is a mythical account of humanity's broken relationship with the divine with earth and with themselves in contrast Celtic wisdom is built on a strong bond with earth in the prophetic figures that Newell draws from the Garden of Eden represents the inner garden of our souls and the outer garden of earth which are seen as essentially one to live in relation to what is deepest in us is to live in relation to the ground from which we and all things have come where are we today in relation to our true selves and the sacredness of earth and how are we to find our way home again this life affirming nourishing book contemplates these questions at a moment of great spiritual awakening an era characterized by religious exile on a vast scale we need a new sense of home spiritually deeply rooted within ourselves and in our shared journey with each other and earth the past as liberation from history explores the difference between the social construction we call history and the lived experience we call the past arguing that by failing to distinguish between the two we risk unquestionably accepting as authoritative accounts of the past in which we have no voice it shows that identities rooted in the richness and variety of the past even when the history is painful serve the purpose of drawing us closer to one another as we seek to realize our shared dreams of life liberty and the pursuit of happiness by placing in counterpoint broader educational concerns with the teaching experiences of the author the study also explores this individual's testimony as a teacher seeking to make relevant for his students the examination of the past
