staring into the fire a celtic story by loretta santoro in the old days before the ice people talked to the spirits directly in time people narrowed their focus and forgot how to do that there were few left who could do it the truthsayers mostly but even they had forgotten how to read the stones so when it came to predicting the future they couldn't see very far they did confirm that the rumors about an imminent invasion by the southern empire were true how the people dealt with this news was up to each of them most would fight of course and those who wouldn't or couldn't hoped the invaders would treat them fairly meelah would fight as any warrior would but she is also a widowed mother and the daughter of a truthsayer conflicting duties with conflicting purposes with a clash of cultures looming over her she begins to question her ways and decide for herself what parts are worth saving as she searches for the ultimate truth she concludes that the best she can do is to find her own truth because in the end her own truth is all that she can take with her
