Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public cultural and social spheres in Western Europe even on the individual level institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized new forms of religious life and community however may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe this book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II in English and French

Clément d'Alexandrie 150-215 ap. J.-C. est l'un des penseurs les plus brillants des premiers siècles chrétiens son enseignement tout autant pétri de la bible que de la pensée grecque nous révèle la nature des débats aux premières heures de l'expansion du christianisme ce livre aborde un sujet peu étudié à ce jour à savoir sa pensée sur l'Église c'est pourtant un sujet récurrent de ses ouvrages où il réfléchit longuement sur l'Église à partir de l'être et la mission du logos divin l'analyse du discours de clément sur l'Église permet donc de revisiter les intuitions principales de sa christologie tout en apportant un éclairage sur sa perception de l'identité chrétienne à une époque où celle-ci est encore en construction clement of alexandria ad 150-215 is one of the most brilliant thinkers of the early christian centuries his teaching steeped as much in the bible as in greek thought reveals to us the nature of the debates in the early days of the expansion of christianity this book deals with a subject little studied to this day namely his thoughts on the church yet it is a recurring subject in his works where he reflects at length on the church from the point of view of the being and the mission of the divine logos analysis of clement's discourse on the church therefore makes it possible to revisit the main intuitions of his christology while shedding light on his perception of christian identity at a time when it is still under construction dans le ministère sacerdotal dans la tradition syriaque primitive tanios bou mansour présente une analyse du sacerdoce chrétien chez quatre auteurs syriaques aphraate Éphrem jacques et narsaï en l'éclairant par le sacerdoce du christ et en le plaçant dans la continuité du sacerdoce de l'ancien testament l'originalité et l'actualité de nos auteurs résident dans leur conception de l'élection de la succession apostolique de traits sacerdotaux attribués aux femmes dans la bible et surtout du prêtre qui mandaté par l'église exécute l'action du christ et de l'esprit in le ministère sacerdotal dans la tradition syriaque primitive tanios bou mansour analyzes the christian priesthood in four syriac writers aphraate ephrem jacob of sarug and narsaï their conception of priesthood is illuminated by the priesthood of christ and contextualized within the continuity of the priesthood of the old testament these authors originality and actuality lies in their conception of election of apostolic succession of sacerdotal traits attributed to women in the bible and especially of the priest who commissioned by the church executes the action of the christ and the spirit the articles in this volume use a variety of disciplinary approaches to examine texts and archival documents recording sixteenth century french ceremonial entries by their very nature ceremonial entries require such an approach they bring together a number of artistic media including music architecture and literature and a range of political concerns like international diplomacy and the relations between urban and royal power few cultural constructs offer such rich and varied terrain to the student of sixteenth century france the primary purpose of this collection is therefore to reflect upon salient aspects of ceremonial entries that may help us to understand how this ritual performed its complex and multidimensional cultural intellectual historical and political work in order to cast a new light on french society in the early modern period
