een vlucht regenwulpen is een fenomeen er werden al meer dan een miljoen exemplaren van verkocht het boek is net als de verfilming een klassieker een beklemmende geschiedenis over een door afkomst en opvoeding tot isolement gedoemd kind wiens angsten en dwang neurotische trekken verzacht worden door een grote opmerkingsgave een hartstochtelijke aard en een diepe liefde voor de natuur een onvergetelijk verhaal uit een tijd toen nederland een universum was en een dorpje de hele wereld enkele weken uit het leven van een in de wetenschap geslaagde bioloog wiens zelfgezochte eenzaamheid enerzijds deerniswekkend is en anderzijds leidt tot een bepaalde vorm van geluk samenvatting en analyse van de roman van de nederlandse auteur geb 1944 essays over nederlandstalige 20e eeuwse schrijvers this book offers an in depth study of iconic literary narratives and images of religious transformation and secularisation in the netherlands during the 1960s and 1970s jesseka batteau shows how gerard reve jan wolters and maarten t hart texts and performances can be understood as instances of religious and post religious memory with a broad public impact they contributed to a widely shared perspective on the dutch religious past and a collective understanding of what secularisation consists of this uniquely interdisciplinary approach combines insights from literary studies memory studies media studies and religious studies and traces the complex dynamics of the circulation of memory and meaning between literary texts mass media and embodied performances within a post religious society dutch cinema when discussed is typically treated only in terms of pre war films or documentaries leaving post war fictional film largely understudied at the same time a hollandse school a term first coined in the 1980s has developed through deadpan ironic films like those of director and actor alex van warmerdam using seminal theories on humour and comedy this book explores a number of dutch films using the notion of categories such as low class comedies neurotic romances deliberate camp and grotesque satire with its original approach this study makes surprising connections between dutch films from various decades
