this book provides an up to date in depth survey of 21st century spanish horror film and media exploring both aesthetics and industrial dynamics it offers detailed analysis of contemporary films and tv series as well as novel approaches to key works within the history of spanish cinema while addressing the specificities of the spanish landscape this volume also situates the national cinematic output within the international arena understanding film production and reception as continuously changing processes in which a variety of economic social and cultural factors intervene the book first analyzes the main horror trends emerging in the early 2000s then approaches genre hybridization and the rise of new filmmakers since the 2010s with a special focus on gender issues and the reconfiguration of the past before addressing the impact of streaming services within the spanish film panorama from a production and distribution standpoint this book will be of keen interest to scholars and students in the areas of film studies media studies tv studies horror spanish cultural studies and production studies a killer at large in a remote basque country valley a detective to rival sarah lund myth versus reality masterful storytelling the spanish bestseller that has taken europe by storm the naked body of a teenage girl is found on the banks of the river less than 24 hours after this discovery a link is made to the murder of another girl the month before is this the work of a ritualistic killer or of the invisible guardian the basajaun a creature of basque mythology 30 year old inspector amaia salazar heads an investigation which will take her back to elizondo the village in the heart of basque country where she was born and to which she had hoped never to return a place of mists rain and forests a place of unresolved conflicts of a dark secret that scarred her childhood and which will come back to torment her torn between the rational procedural part of her job and local myths and superstitions amaia salazar has to fight off the demons of her past in order to confront the reality of a serial killer at loose in a region steeped in the history of the spanish inquisition with its focus on recent detective series featuring female investigators this collection analyzes the authors treatment of current social political and economic problems in spain and beyond in addition to exploring interrelations between gender globalization the environment and technology the contributions here reveal the varied ways in which the use of a series allows for a deeper consideration of such issues in addition to permitting the more extensive development of the protagonist investigator and her reactions to and methods of dealing with personal and professional challenges of the twenty first century in these stories the authors employ strategies that break with long standing conventions developing crime fiction in unexpected ways incorporating elements of science fiction the supernatural and the historical novel as well as varied geographical settings small towns provincial cities and rural communities beyond the urban environment all of which contributes to the reinvigoration of the genre contemporary fairy tale magic edited by lydia brugu and auba llompart studies the impact of fairy tales on contemporary cultures from an interdisciplinary perspective with special emphasis on how literature and film are retelling classic fairy tales for modern audiences we are currently witnessing a resurgence of fairy tales and fairy tale characters and motifs in art and popular culture as well as an increasing and renewed interest in reinventing and subverting these narratives to adapt them to the expectations and needs of the contemporary public the collected essays also observe how the influence of academic disciplines like gender studies and current literary and cinematic trends play an important part in the revision of fairy tale plots characters and themes el volumen se estructura en cinco grandes ejes temáticos que abordan aspectos esenciales en la construcción de los discursos sobre género y sexualidad el primero de ellos nuevas masculinidades y maternidades contemporáneas reúne estudios que interrogan las configuraciones de la masculinidad como se observa en obras como la de hercole filogenio o livia de stefani y los modelos de maternidad a partir de textos literarios y audiovisuales entre otros temas se analizan las masculinidades envejecidas en la obra de peter straub las narrativas lésbicas en la época victoriana y las representaciones femeninas en la literatura de alessandro baricco estudios que problematizan los cánones tradicionales de género y proponen lecturas que desafían los discursos hegemónicos sobre la identidad palabras y silencios prensa y epistolarios femeninos es una sección en la que se examinan las voces de mujeres en el periodismo y la correspondencia como espacios de resistencia y producción de conocimiento a través del análisis de figuras como dora d istria ada marchesini gobetti o anna franchi estos artículos ponen en evidencia cómo la escritura epistolar y periodística ha servido como plataforma para la reivindicación de derechos y espacios de la transformación social en tercer lugar imágenes que cuentan el lenguaje visual en el activismo de género se enfoca en la dimensión icónica y performativa de las representaciones de género desde el análisis del cine experimental femenino hasta la participación de artistas españolas en la exposición universal de chicago de 1893 esta sección destaca la importancia del lenguaje visual en la configuración de discursos emancipadores y en la resignificación de los cuerpos en la esfera pública por su parte cuerpos disidentes sexualidad y género explora cómo las identidades queer y las subjetividades marginales han sido representadas en distintos discursos y soportes se abordan entre otros temas la relectura del concepto de drag en el film mulan 1998 la construcción de la identidad en la pianista de elfriede jelinek o la reivindicación de la figura de la bruja en la literatura feminista contemporánea esta sección pone en tensión los límites entre normatividad y disidencia visibilizando la agencia de cuerpos y subjetividades tradicionalmente excluidos por último en historias del género mujeres en la literatura y la memoria se analizan las formas en que las mujeres han sido representadas en los relatos históricos y literarios así como su papel en la transmisión de la memoria colectiva desde el estudio de figuras como Juana de Castilla o Giovanna d'Austria hasta la denuncia de la violencia de género en la literatura del siglo XIX o la preservación de una memoria en femenino como bien hacen las mujeres Misak esta sección evidencia la necesidad de revisar los relatos canónicos y reivindicar la presencia de las mujeres en la historia cultural y política this book explores the concept of liminality in the representation of women in eighteenth and nineteenth century literature as well as in contemporary rewritings such as novels films television shows videogames and graphic novels in particular the volume focuses on vampires prostitutes quixotes and detectives as examples of new women who inhabit the margins of society and populate its narratives therefore it places together for the first time four important liminal identities while it explores a relevant corpus that comprises four centuries and several countries its diachronic transnational and comparative approach emphasizes the representation across time and space of female sexuality gender violence and women's rights also employing a liminal stance in its literary analysis facing the past in order to understand the present by underlining the dialogue between past and present this monograph contributes to contemporary debates on the representation of women and the construction of femininity as opposed to hegemonic masculinity for it exposes the line of thought that has brought us to the present moment hence challenging assumed stereotypes and narratives in addition by using popular narratives and media the present work highlights the value of literature films or alternative forms of storytelling to understand how women's place in society their voice and their presence have been and are still negotiated in spaces of visibility agency and power this collection of essays expands our understanding and appreciation of the body of work by established female authors of spanish crime fiction series by analyzing recent narratives that in some cases contribute in novel ways to the ongoing reformulation of the genre and in others provide readers with a temporary hiatus from it the studies offer students and scholars of crime fiction new perspectives on the works of well known authors as well as analyses of their often less known narratives that may not fit within the genre readers will engage in an exploration of gender dynamics and sexuality a variety of psychological and social issues and the consequences of the indiscriminate consumption of media and abuse of the environment and animals in narratives that exhibit the versatility of these outstanding authors the volume will appeal to a wide audience of literary and cultural studies critics as well as crime fiction enthusiasts and newcomers to this popular genre
