the vita coetanea a contemporary life is an autobiographical account of ramon

Ilull's life dictated by himself to a friend in 1311 when he was seventy nine years old in it Ilull reviews his works in the context of a life dedicated to god and motivated by the desire to disseminate the message of the christian faith among the infidels Ilull the self labeled troubadour of books wrote this account in part as a self justification of his life and work in part as self consolation for his unending toils and travails it is very likely that he also had in mind the council of vienne 1311 which he was about to attend and where he submitted petitions dealing with the establishment of adequate places to study languages for the preaching of the gospel to every creature and the founding of a christian military religious order that waged permanent war against the saracens until the holy land is reconquered Ilull wanted to frame these petitions within a well thought out justificatory account of his life and works that exudes passion commitment and love for his fellow man this volume contains the latin original as well as translations into catalan spanish and english
