el plan infinito de la celebrada escritora latinoamericana isabel allende es su primera novela situada en los estados unidos y con personajes norteamericanos es la hipnotizante y conmovedora saga de un hombre que durante los largos años de su juventud y madurez busca amor y aceptación en allende traza la pobreza y abandono de la niñez de su protagonista la persecución de las pandillas de un barrio de los angeles el horror de sus experiencias en vietnam su vida frenética como abogado en san francisco una serie de frustraciones que por fin se resuelven en acogida y redención from the literary legend isabel allende an enthralling tale of one man's search for love and his struggle to contend with the pain and deprivation that shaped him isabel allende is considered latin america's most acclaimed woman writer a status she has achieved by imbuing her work with a mixture of history and fiction that both educates and entertains readers in this book levine examines allende's success in uniting quality writing with mass appeal she looks at allende's use of a feminist agenda her ability to combine genres as varied as the adventure story and the romance novel and the important roles historical data and sociological insights play in framing her narratives while most scholarship on allende focuses on her early novels levin's study touches on the full catalog of allende's work supplementing the text are an interview with allende a preface chronology notes and references selected bibliography and index the source of the narrative energy that creates such absorbing stories allende's very popular novels have attracted both critical approval and opprobrium often at the expense of genuine analysis this sophisticated study explores the narrative architecture of allende's house of the spirits 1982 daughter of fortune 1999 and portrait in sepia 2000 as a trilogy proposing that the places created in these novels subvert the patriarchal norms that have governed politics sexuality and ethnicity rooted in the foucauldian premise that the history of space is essentially the history of power and supported by susan stanford friedman's cultural geographies of encounter as well as gloria anzaldúa's study of borderlands this study shows that by rejecting traditional spatial hierarchies allende's trilogy systematically deterritorializes the elite while shifting the previously marginalized to the physical and thematic centers of her works this movement provides the narrative energy which draws the reader into allende's universe and sustains the good story for which she has been universally acclaimed karen wooley martin is associate professor of spanish at union university jackson tennessee praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature this volume looks at allende s fictional narratives to date from the house of the spirits to portrait in sepia from the point of view of autobiography studies and the re creation of self identity that takes place throughout her works there has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by chicana and latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material this reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by chicana and latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 in doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature the volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 mexican american puerto rican cuban american dominican american and nuyorican women authors these citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author s shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works
