contemporary philosophy and theology are ever more conscious of the fact that the model of relations between religion and culture developed in modernity is fundamentally flawed the processes of the secularization of society culture and even religion are rooted in the dualistic vision of religion and culture introduced in the late middle ages in seeking a way out we need to explore domains of culture unaffected by western european secular thinking russian thought is remarkably well prepared to formulate an alternative to secular modernity indeed in russian culture there was neither a renaissance nor an enlightenment eastern christianity retained an integral patristic vision of human nature that had not been divided into separate natural and supernatural elements these pre and non modern visions are now gaining exceptional value in the postmodern reality in which we find ourselves the heritage of russian christian thought may serve as a source of inspiration for alternative approaches to religion and culture in this respect russian thought may be compared with nouvelle theologie radical orthodoxy and other recent movements in christian postsecular thought for this reason it remains astonishingly contemporary the lebanese civil war 1975 1990 profoundly influenced the region s social and cultural landscape including its musical expression yet the role of songs in reflecting the military conflict as well as the geopolitical tensions and aspirations it generated remains largely underexplored analyzing song lyrics offers an alternative lens through which to understand the conflict one that goes beyond traditional historical narratives while history books often recount events through the lens of military operations political developments or diplomatic maneuvers this research takes a different approach i seek to understand history through the lyrics of songs examined in tandem with the biographies and lived experiences of the artists who created them what socio political insights can these songs reveal
