poetry latino latina studies maria luisa arroyo s gathering words recogiendo palabras gives a voice to the oppressed the abused and the forgotten it speaks from battered women s shelters and from inside homes that hide domestic violence and child abuse laying bare the stark realities of life with phrases that are alternately elegant blunt and rich with vivid imagery arroyo writes with spine tingling candor that does not allow us to deny the truth shaped by her family s background in puerto rican music her poems written mostly in english are reminiscent of folksongs with their narrative storytelling and activist representation of the disenfranchised disillusioned and neglected this is arroyo s first full length collection of poems short stories from the perspectives of the mexican american community of new mexico besides answering questions about the history and folklore of christmas this book also contains poetry and words to christmas carols literary and historical fragments quotations and sayings legends and recipes it also includes a cd of instrumental christmas music
