how has human consciousness evolved from its primitive origins and what course will it take in the future how should it develop in an individual from infancy and through childhood and the adult years such questions have been the focus of many writers and many religious and philosophical traditions both eastern and western most writers and traditions conceive of psychic evolution in terms of one universal pattern and the evolutionary goal considered by a given writer or tradition may be one of rationality love or transcendence of ones individual separateness the author contends that we may conceptualize the goal of psychic evolution in terms of any of five different modes of fulfillment we can recognize higher and lower levels of attainment in each of these modes whatever mode an individual emphasizes it is easy to recognize a value in having access to other modes in the authors view we need to recognize alternative pathways of psychic evolution the pathways will differ with respect to the modes that are emphasized and the nature of the interplay of different modes
