a major new biography of rudyard kipling rudyard kipling 1865 1936 was a unique figure in british history a great writer as well as an imperial icon whose life trajectory matched that of the british empire from its zenith to its final decades kipling was in his early twenties when his first stories about anglo indian life vaulted him into celebrity he went on to be awarded the nobel prize and to add more phrases to the language than any man since shakespeare but his conservative views and advocacy of imperialism damaged his critical reputation while at the same time making him all the more popular with a general readership by the time he died the man who incarnated an era for millions was almost forgotten and new generations must come to terms in their own way with his enduring but mysterious powers previous works on kipling have focused exclusively on his writing and on his domestic life here the distinguished biographer david gilmour not only explains how and why kipling wrote but also explores the themes of his complicated life his ideas his relationships and his views on the empire and the future gilmour is the first writer to explore kipling s public role his influence on the way britons saw themselves and their empire his fascinating new book based on extensive research especially in the underexplored archives of the united states is a groundbreaking study of a great and misunderstood writer the present book seeks to study the feminist perspective in shashi deshpande s novels it reveals deshpande s sincerity and ability in voicing the concerns of the urban educated middle class woman trapped between tradition and modernity her sensitive heroines are fully conscious of being victims of gross gender discrimination prevalent in a conservative male dominated society a culture specific approach has been adopted to unravel shashi deshpande s pragmatic resolution related to the modern indian woman s beleaguered existence the book it is hoped will make a rich contribution to women s studies this volume focusses on the status of Ca^{2+} ions in regulation of phototransduction light adaptation and the recovery phase in vertebrate photoreceptors particular emphasis is given to Ca^{2+} binding proteins and their targets among them particulate guanylate cyclases gPCR coupled kinases and cyclic nucleotide gated cation channels the book also expands our understanding of events involving Ca^{2+} in the retinal pigment epithelium in synaptic transmission and secondary retinal neurons a significant part of the book is dedicated to the role of Ca^{2+} in invertebrate phototransduction the best studied phospholipid mediated signal transduction pathway several chapters explore association of gene defects with human retina disease and the generation of animal models of retinal degeneration medical informatics is a field which continues to evolve with developments and improvements in foundational methods applications and technology constantly offering opportunities for supporting the customization of healthcare to individual patients this book presents the proceedings of the 16th world congress of medical and health informatics medinfo2017 held in Hangzhou China in August 2017 which also marked the 50th anniversary of the International Medical Informatics Association (IMIA) the central theme of medinfo2017 was precision healthcare through informatics and the scientific program was divided into five tracks connected and digital health human data science human organizational and social aspects knowledge management and quality and safety and patient outcomes the 249 accepted papers and 168 posters included here span the breadth and depth of sub disciplines in biomedical and health informatics such as clinical informatics nursing informatics consumer health informatics public health informatics human factors in healthcare bioinformatics translational informatics quality and safety research at the intersection of biomedical and health informatics and precision medicine the book will be of interest to all those who wish to keep pace with advances in the science education and practice of biomedical and health informatics worldwide

When we set about organizing EPIA 2003 in Porto during the APPIA meeting at the previous edition of the conference EPIA 2001 it was decided that it would be organized by Fernando Moura Pires Fajp e and myself we chose Beja as the venue to host the conference as it provided a good support infrastructure and Fernando had a good working relationship with several people at the Beja Polytechnic Institute shortly thereafter Fernando came to know that he was ailing from a disease that was to take his life in May 2003 as with many other projects in which he got involved Fernando clung to the organization of this conference with dedication and perseverance even while knowing that he might not see the results of his work EPIA 2003 is a tribute to his work taking up on the successful experience gained from EPIA 2001 we decided to structure EPIA 2003 as a set of five distinct workshops roughly reflecting the panorama of ai research in portugal special thanks are due to the organizers of each workshop for the quality and timeliness of the work they carried out the conference was all the more interesting because of the eight invited presentations and tutorials by alexander bockmayr and lcar cardoso dario freano haroldboley pedrodomingos pieteradriaans veronicadahlandvitor santos costa there are short one page abstracts included in these proceedings for some of these presentations this volume contains the proceedings of the 2015 clifford lectures on algebraic groups structures and actions held from march 2 5 2015 at tulane university new orleans louisiana this volume consists of six articles on algebraic groups including an enhanced exposition of the classical results of chevalley and rosenlicht on the structure of algebraic groups an enhanced survey of the recently developed theory of pseudo reductive groups and an exposition of the recently developed operational theory for singular varieties in addition there are three research articles containing previously unpublished foundational results on birational automorphism groups of algebraic varieties solution of hermite joubert problem over closed fields and cohomological invariants and applications to classifying spaces the old and new results presented in these articles will hopefully become cornerstones for the future development of the theory of algebraic groups and applications graduate students and researchers working in the fields of algebraic geometry number theory and representation theory will benefit from this unique and broad compilation of fundamental results on algebraic group theory major thinkers in various intellectual disciplines are featured in thinkers of the twentieth century your patrons will find this guide a perfect start to their studies on 450 intellectuals from philosophy theology literary criticism aesthetics history social sciences politics and the sciences entries are divided into two parts part one includes a biography complete bibliography and reading list of the major books and articles written about the entrant part two consists of an extended 1 000 to 3 000 word essay on the entrant these essays explain in clear comprehensible language the work of the entrant and his her influence on the intellectual of the 20th century this book consists of twenty nine articles contributed by participants of the international conference in algebraic topology held in july 1991 in mexico in addition to papers on current research there are several surveys and expositions on the work of mark mahowald whose sixtieth birthday was celebrated during the conference the conference was truly international with over 130 mathematicians from fifteen countries it ended with a spectacular total eclipse of the sun a photograph of which appears as the frontispiece the papers range over much of algebraic topology and cross over into related areas such as k theory representation theory and lie groups also included is a chart of the adams spectral sequence and a bibliography of mahowald s publications kipling s letters never before collected and edited and largely unpublished are now presented in an annotated edition based on the more than 6 000 letters preserved in public and private collections all over the world planned in an edition of four volumes the letters reveal kipling with a fullness and immediacy of detail unmatched by any other source the first two volumes present the first half of kipling s life down to the end of the nineteenth century they show the remarkable transformation of the young schoolboy into the seasoned indian journalist and the even more remarkable transformation of the indian journalist into the famous writer the most dazzling literary success of the 1890s kipling s hard years of apprenticeship his restless travels and eager encounters with cities and men his triumphant struggles in the literary wars are all vividly set forth the letters also take kipling through his marriage and the births of his children through the mingled happiness and distress of his american years to the tragedy of his daughter s death at the very highest moment of his literary fame
